- Agreed by 194 Parties, but the USA briefly withdrew in 2020.

- It saw Parties commit to limiting the rise in mean global temperature to 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels.

- This agreement has successfully forced a major oil company to take action.