Carbon and GHG mitigation- Reducing pollution and gases that heat the Earth's atmosphere.

Clean energy transition - Switching to clean energy.

Loss and damage - Harm from climate change, due to extreme weather impacts.

Food security and climate change – The effect on food supply, making food security uncertain.

Environmental health and climate change – Keeping the natural environment clean and healthy.