Subject: FAO Richard Lloyd, Interim Chair IPSA

Dear Richard

I am writing following IPSA's recent consultation on how MPs' pay should be increased, and to express my disappointment with the outcome of this review.

It is completely inappropriate to increase MPs' pay, at a time when so many others are facing redundancy, pay cuts, and pay freezes.

The Government has frozen Ministerial salaries for a year, and I believe it would be right for IPSA to follow this example. I strongly urge IPSA to reconsider this decision, as I believe it will only erode trust between the public and their elected representatives during a national crisis.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes

Lee
