About

Realize LIVE is Siemens' digital transformation conference.

It's where technical users, industry leaders, and partners come together to accelerate innovation and efficiency through learning, connection and problem-solving.

At the conference, you will:

Improve your proficiency with the tools you use, thanks to best practices, hands-on training, and technical support.

Optimize your solutions and discover ways to advance innovation.

Connect with industry leaders to prepare for the future of digital transformation.

I would recommend Realize LIVE to anyone who wants to stay ahead of what's coming in the future, stay informed about current developments, network with key peers, and gain valuable exposure to the industry."
