Guide to the 6 Areas of Nikko – Rich in History, Nature, Relaxation, and Charm

Nikko Area

Explore World Heritage shrines and temples while strolling through the temple town

Centered around the World Heritage Site “Shrines and Temples of Nikko,” this is the main area for exploring Nikko’s historical treasures. The area around Nikko Station and the temple town is filled with a variety of spots for food lovers and traditional craft shops. In addition to long-established businesses, new trendy shops continue to open, offering a wide range of experiences.

Okunikko Area

Discover the natural beauty of Nikko National Park, shaped by ancient mountains

The stunning landscapes of Nikko National Park trace their origins back to the eruption of Mt. Nantai around 20,000 years ago. Iconic natural wonders such as Lake Chuzenji, Kegon Falls, and Senjogahara Marshland have been shaped over millennia, creating a rich habitat for diverse flora and fauna. Since the Meiji era (1868–1912), this area has been a popular international summer retreat and continues to uphold its legacy as a high-end resort destination.

Kegon Falls

Kinugawa & Kawaji Area

A historic hot spring destination lined with inns and hotels along a beautiful valley

During the Edo period (1603–1868), Kinugawa Onsen was an exclusive hot spring resort reserved for daimyo feudal lords and Buddhist priests. Today, it offers visitors a relaxing stay in traditional inns surrounded by breathtaking nature. With easy access to theme parks and Nikko’s shrines and temples, it also serves as a convenient base for sightseeing. Kawaji Onsen, nestled in the mountains, is a peaceful hot spring retreat known for its scenic landscapes, including Ryuokyo Valley, where visitors can enjoy outdoor activities immersed in nature.

Edo Wonderland Nikko Edomura

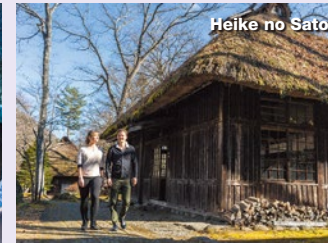

Yunishigawa, Kawamata & Okukinu Area

A secluded retreat where Japan’s ancient way of life can still be felt

This remote area is said to have been a refuge for the defeated Heike clan after the Battle of Dan-no-ura in the last years of the Heian period (late 12th century). Visitors can enjoy a peaceful stay while experiencing traditional Japanese village life and relaxing in open-air hot springs surrounded by snow. Each of these mountain hot spring towns offers a nostalgic countryside atmosphere, and in winter, the Kamakura Festival in Yunishigawa Onsen enchants visitors with its magical snowy scenery.

Ashio Area

A historic copper mining town that once supported Japan’s industry

Ashio prospered as “Japan’s top mining town” for about 400 years, from the Edo period to the Showa era (1926–1989), thriving as a center of copper production. Many valuable industrial heritage sites remain in Ashio, including Ashio Copper Mine, a facility where visitors can learn about the history of copper mining. Riding the Watarase Keikoku Railway along the Watarase River offers a special experience, allowing passengers to enjoy breathtaking views of the clear stream and the beauty of nature in all four seasons.

Imaichi Area

A town that retains the charm of its former post station days

Located at the junction of the Nikko, Rei-heishi, and Aizu Nishi-Kaido highways, Imaichi flourished as a post town serving travelers on pilgrimages to Nikko. It is home to the world’s longest tree-lined avenue, the Cedar Avenue, which stretches approximately 37 km and is recognized in the Guinness Book of Records. As a gateway to both Nikko and Kinugawa Onsen, the area around Shimo-imaichi Station is well-equipped with restaurants, Michi-no-Eki roadside stations, and souvenir shops. Visitors can also enjoy hands-on experiences such as strawberry picking and sake brewery tours.

Nikko Station to Shinkyo Bridge

日光駅～神橋

The area stretching from JR Nikko Station and Tobu-nikko Station to Shinkyo Bridge, the gateway to the World Heritage Site "Shrines and Temples of Nikko," is a lively temple town. Lined with shops offering various foods, traditional crafts, and souvenirs, it's the perfect place for a leisurely stroll.

Dragon Street Lamps

龍の街路灯

Along the main street leading from Nikko Station to the World Heritage Site, you'll find street lamps adorned with dragon motifs and town crests from the surrounding temple town districts. These designs are inspired by the many dragon carvings found at Nikko Toshogu Shrine.

1 Shinkyo Bridge

神橋

The symbolic gateway to the World Heritage Site "Shrines and Temples of Nikko," Shinkyo Bridge is one of the structures belonging to Nikko Futarasan-jinja Shrine. This striking vermilion-lacquered bridge is considered an iconic view of Nikko. According to legend, when Shodo Shonin, the Buddhist monk who founded Nikko, sought to cross the river in the Nara period (710–794), divine beings appeared and released two serpents, whose backs transformed into the bridge. At night, the bridge is beautifully illuminated, creating a mystical atmosphere distinct from its daytime charm.

2 NIKKO KANAYA HOTEL

日光金谷ホテル

Founded in 1873, the NIKKO KANAYA HOTEL is the oldest existing resort hotel in Japan, with a history of over 150 years. It is surrounded by a classical atmosphere where Japanese and Western cultures merge, and part of the building is registered as a National Tangible Cultural Property. The hotel evokes a nostalgic and peaceful feeling, and has welcomed many famous guests, including Dr. Albert Einstein and Helen Keller.

Eating Stroll in the Temple Town

門前町での食べ歩き

Along both sides of the approximately 1.5 km pathway from Nikko Station to Shinkyo Bridge, there are many restaurants. From traditional Japanese sweets like yukan and manju to photogenic desserts and hearty foods, there is a wide variety to enjoy. Why not take a 20-minute walk and savor the tasty delights along the way?

Recommended Nikko Cuisine

おすすめ日光グルメ

Yuba

湯波

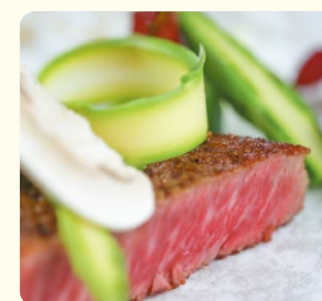

Made with soy milk and high-quality water, Nikko's yuba (tofu skin) is a delicacy. Classic dishes include boiled rolled yuba and yuba sashimi, but you can also enjoy fresh, smooth yuba or even yuba-based sweets, which have become popular recently.

Yukan

羊羹

Made from azuki beans and sugar, yukan (a thick, jelly-like sweet) has a long shelf life, making it a popular souvenir for visitors to Nikko. There are still many long-established shops that have been in business for hundreds of years.

Wagyu Beef

和牛

Tochigi Wagyu is a local brand of beef in Tochigi Prefecture, and its high quality has won awards at national competitions. It offers melt-in-your-mouth texture and beautiful marbling.

Sweets

スイーツ

From easy-to-eat snacks perfect for a break during sightseeing to more elaborate sweets for souvenirs, a variety of sweets continue to appear. You can also enjoy local strawberry-based treats.

Traditional Woodcarving Craft: Nikko-bori

伝統工芸「日光彫」

Nikko's representative traditional woodcarving craft, Nikko-bori, is said to have originated when craftsmen gathered for the construction of Nikko Toshogu Shrine created these works as a side activity. Characterized by smooth curves in the carvings and lacquer coating, it remains a popular souvenir. There are also several facilities where visitors can experience Nikko-bori firsthand using traditional tools.

Kimono Experience (COCON NIKKO)

着物体験(日光着物レンタル COCON NIKKO)

The picturesque streets of Nikko, where history and nature harmonize, are the perfect backdrop for wearing a kimono. Visit a kimono rental and dressing service shop, try on your favorite kimono, and set off for a stroll through the area.

Nikko Green Slow Mobility

日光グリーンスローモビリティ

An electric low-speed bus, commonly known as “GSM,” operates a sightseeing loop connecting various attractions around Nishimachi, departing from and returning to Nikko-zan Rinno-ji Temple. This eco-friendly mode of transportation minimizes environmental impact and is expected to become a new tourism feature. Why not enjoy the historic atmosphere of Nikko while traveling in comfort?

1 Nikko Toshogu Shrine

日光東照宮

This shrine enshrines Tokugawa Ieyasu, the first shogun of the Edo Shogunate, who laid the foundation for 260 years of peace and culture during the Edo period. It was established in 1617. The magnificent and colorful shrine buildings we see today were crafted by the finest craftsmen from all over Japan during the grand renovation in 1636 under the third shogun, Tokugawa Iemitsu. The intricate carvings of animals, such as the famous “Yomeimon Gate,” “Karamon Gate,” the San-zaru (Three Monkeys), and the Nemuri-neko (Sleeping Cat), overwhelm visitors with their beauty.

Chuzenji Onsen

中禅寺温泉

Located at the foot of Mt. Nantai at an altitude of 1,260 meters, this area is centered around Lake Chuzenji. In the past, embassy villas from various European countries lined the lakeshore, making it a thriving international summer retreat. Here, you can immerse yourself in the rich natural surroundings and experience the history and culture that have been nurtured over time in many ways.

Rainbow Trout Dishes

ニジマス料理

Lake Chuzenji is home to an abundance of freshwater fish, and many local restaurants serve rainbow trout dishes. From salt-grilled and meunière to smoked preparations, these dishes highlight the natural flavors of the fish. Enjoy them while taking in the scenic beauty of Okunikko.

1 Lake Chuzenji

中禅寺湖

Located at the gateway to Okunikko ("Inner Nikko" – the mountainous region of Nikko), Lake Chuzenji sits at an impressive altitude of 1,269 meters, making it one of Japan's highest lakes. With a circumference of approximately 25 km, it was formed around 20,000 years ago when lava from an eruption of Mt. Nantai dammed the valley. The lake showcases beautiful scenery throughout the seasons, with vibrant azaleas in early summer and amazing autumn foliage drawing many visitors. Enjoy a sightseeing cruise, or try water activities like SUP and kayaking for a unique experience on the lake.

2 Embassy Villa Memorial Park (British/Italian)

大使館別荘記念公園 (英国/イタリア)

From the mid-Meiji period to the early Showa period (late 19th century to mid-20th century), Lake Chuzenji developed as an international summer retreat. Many foreign villas were built, including embassy villas from various European countries. Today, two of them are open to the public as the British Embassy Villa Memorial Park and the Italian Embassy Villa Memorial Park. At the British Embassy Villa, it is recommended to savor traditional British tea and scones while enjoying the view of Lake Chuzenji. The Italian Embassy Villa features a striking checkerboard pattern on its exterior, crafted from Nikko-grown cedar bark and thin wooden slats. From inside the villa, visitors can admire one of the most breathtaking views of Lake Chuzenji.

3 Kegon Falls

華厳滝

One of Japan's Three Great Waterfalls, Kegon Falls is a breathtaking sight, with water plunging 97 meters down a sheer rock face into the basin below. An elevator takes visitors close to the base of the falls, where they can experience the powerful roar and spray up close. From January to February, the smaller streams known as the Junitaki Falls (Twelve Falls) freeze, creating an ethereal blue ice spectacle.

Yumoto Onsen

湯元温泉

Nestled by Lake Yunoko, Yumoto Onsen is a hot spring village rich in sulfuric waters. It serves as an ideal base for exploring the national park, whether unwinding after a hike or enjoying winter activities. Surrounded by breathtaking natural scenery, the area is also a haven for rare flora and fauna.

Hiking ハイキング

Okunikko offers a variety of hiking trails suitable for all levels, from beginners to advanced hikers. One of the most recommended routes is the Senjogahara Nature Research Trail, which follows the Yugawa River and allows visitors to observe the diverse flora and fauna of the marshland. The mostly flat terrain makes it an excellent choice for beginners. For more hiking options, please refer to the digital pamphlet.

1 Senjogahara Marshland 戦場ヶ原

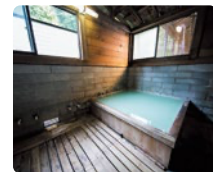

☎ 1 "Sanbonmatsu" bus stop (40) → Short walk (Senjogahara Observatory)/☎ 1 "Akanuma" bus stop (39) → Hiking

One of Japan's largest marshlands, Senjogahara is home to a diverse range of bird species, and registered as a Ramsar wetland. A well-maintained hiking course, taking about two hours to complete, allows visitors to explore its beautiful scenery from various observation points. The area is also famous for stargazing, offering optimal conditions for enjoying the night sky in all its glory.

Yumoto Onsen 湯元温泉

Located on the northern shore of Lake Yunoko, this historic hot spring area dates back over 1,250 years when it was first discovered by a

Buddhist monk. The milky-white sulfuric waters flow abundantly, offering a truly authentic onsen experience. The onsen town features Anyo-no-Yu, a free foot bath (closed in winter), as well as facilities where visitors can enjoy a relaxing day-use hot spring soak.
