Location

Colroger House & Cottages is located in the centre of Mullion, a pictureque Cornish village on the Lizard Peninsula in South Cornwall. Just 1½ miles away lies Mullion Cove, home to a National Trust harbour that's popular for boat trips, paddleboarding, and kayaking due to its rich wildlife, including seals and seabirds. Nearby, are several popular beaches such as the National Trust Poldhu Cove with beach café, Polurrian, Kynance Cove with National Trust car park, Gulvalloe Church Cove beach and Loe Bar.

Other popular destinations on the Lizard include Lizard Point, the most southerly point on the south coast of England, the fishing village of Cadgwith, Kenangkan and Coverack.

The village of Mullion offers a range of amenities and facilities within walking distance of the property, including pubs, restaurants, takeaways, churches, local shops, a Co-op supermarket, a chemist and a health centre. Families are well-served with both Mullion Community Primary School and Mullion School, a nearby secondary school. Among the local pubs, The Old Inn and Mullion Bay Pub are known for good food within the area. Mullion Golf Course, set on the headland overlooking the sea, is just 1½ miles away.

Additional amenities can be found in the town of Helston, just 7 miles away, including a selection of supermarkets, shops, pubs, a theatre, cinema, and a sports complex with an indoor swimming pool. For further amenities and facilities, the county town of Truro lies 24 miles to the north.

The surrounding area offers a range of tourist attractions, including the pictureque harbour town of Porthleven, just 9 miles away, known for its harbour and restaurants. Other popular nearby destinations also include the Cornish Seal Sanctuary in Gweek, the Trebah Gardens, and the Helford River. Further afield, Falmouth is home to Pendennis Castle (English Heritage) and the National Maritime Museum Cornwall. Guests often visit the fishing village of Mousehole, the Minack Theatre, St Ives, and Carbis Bay (2½ miles away), as well as the dramatic coastline at Land's End, located 30 miles away.

The Business

Colroger Holiday Cottages is an established and profitable business located in the centre of the village of Mullion, making it extremely popular with guests as they can walk out to the amenities within the village. The Vendor's have been in ownership of the property since 1969 and have built up high levels of repeat and recommendation business over the last 56 years and the sale is due to retirement.

The business is currently promoted through its own website: www.colrogersholidays.co.uk.

co.uk. It operates independently without the use of booking agents. Two of the cottages have recently been listed on Airbnb and social media is used on a limited basis including Facebook and Instagram.

The gross turnover for the business year ending 2023 was £62,479 with a net profit of £45,512. The gross turnover year ending 2022 was £66,979 with a net profit of £38,351.

In addition to the holiday letting business, there are two commercial properties that are currently let out including a café with a passing rent of £6,480 per annum and a dog grooming parlour with a passing rent of £5,760 per annum.

There is potential for further development of the business, particularly by extending the holiday letting season beyond the current limited operating months of March to October. Additionally, to increase the turnover of the business, the appointment of a holiday letting agent could enhance bookings.

Adjoining Colroger House is an externally accessed store, which offers potential for conversion in conjunction with the sun room in the main house, into an annexe or an additional holiday let, subject to gaining the necessary planning consents.

Trading information can be provided to bona fide purchasers.
