DELHI CRIME: SEASON 3

On Netflix 2025

When the search for an injured baby's missing mother unravels a massive human trafficking operation in India, DIG Vartika Chaturvedi faces the most challenging case of her career. Pitted against the ruthless trafficker Meena, Vartika and her team — Neeti, Bhupi, and the rest — must follow a trail of clues that leads them to uncover a vast trafficking network stretching far beyond India's borders. As the investigation intensifies, the stakes rise, and the case becomes a defining moment for Madam Sir.

The makers of Delhi Crime said, "We're thrilled to return with Season 3 of Delhi Crime. Madam Sir and her elite team face their most formidable challenge yet – an adversary who is brutal and ambitious. Building on the raw intensity that earned the series global acclaim, this season delves deeper into the moral complexities of modern India, where progress has a price and the line between victim and perpetrator sometimes blurs."

KHAKEE: THE BENGAL CHAPTER

On Netflix 2025

In the Bengal of the early 2000s, where Gangsters and Politicians reign supreme, a decorated cop's death paves the way for a fearless IPS Arjun Maitra — an unrelenting force ready to take on the chaos and restore justice.

Creator Neeraj Pandey shared: "With Khakee: The Bengal Chapter, we celebrate our continued partnership with Netflix in building a franchise where the audience will witness a culturally rich region, bustling streets of Kolkata, new faces, new conflicts, and a story that is just as intense but uniquely its own. In line with the trademark Khakee flavour, in the upcoming chapter, the stakes are higher, the truths are darker, and the challenges are grittier. I am sure the audiences will be delighted with the powerful ensemble and can't wait for their reactions as they experience the intensity and drama on screen. It was a sheer delight working with our directors Debatma, Tushar and the entire crew who worked tirelessly to bring this story to life."

THE ROYALS

On Netflix 2025

When Aviraaj Singh, the polo-playing, pleasure-seeking, party prince, heir to the royal throne of Morpur, meets high-functioning, tightly wound, ace CEO Sophia Kanmani Shekhar, sparks and insults fly as they reluctantly come together to save his royally dysfunctional family from financial ruin and to save her own leading startup of luxury homestays in India from shark investment bankers. Two worlds, one of dwindling aristocracy, and the other of racing capitalism converge and throw up a whirlwind of clashing ambitions, steamy romance, and fashion-forward Instagrammable moments. The Royals is a breezy romcom served up with a side of dreamy palace life, under the blazing royal sun.

Rangita and Ishita Pritish Nandy, known for their contemporary pop culture and spirited storytelling, shared: “The Royals being our very first with Netflix had to be just the right blend of coming-of-age-India, Gen Z storytelling and feisty fun! There is the inevitable romance of old royalty; monarchs without crowns, and the incredible drive of today’s startup warriors for whom crowns hold zero shine. Sparks and insults will fly when these 2 worlds clash, and that has been great fun for us to create and produce! We’re thrilled to be a part of the Netflix family and partner with them to take our tale of a girl-meets-boy, the classic maharaja (king) and aamkumari (commoner) tale, to a global audience.”

DINING WITH THE KAPOORS

On Netflix 2025

Step into the world of Bollywood's most iconic family, where food, fun, legacy and film come together in a heartfelt and intimate showcase. Seen through the eyes of the family members, this feel-good narrative aims to give fans and audiences a sneak peek into the Kapoor Khaandaan, their memories of growing up together, their love for food and the family's relationship with cinema.

Creator and showrunner Armaan Jain shares: "This film has been one of the most incredible and emotional experiences of my life. It's a dream I've carried with me since childhood — a chance to share my love for storytelling, food, and family with the world. It's my first time conceptualizing, producing, and showrunning and I couldn't be more grateful for the opportunity to bring it to life. Growing up in the Kapoor family, food and cinema weren't just passions — they were the moments that brought us together. The real magic happens around the dinner table, where stories, laughter, and memories define who we are. This film is my way of honoring that legacy, celebrating the bonds that connect us, and sharing the warmth that food and family bring." With Smriti Mundhra as director, we've crafted something heartfelt and authentic that reflects not just our family, but the joy of sharing a meal, of passing down recipes and stories, of finding comfort in each other's company. Alongside my partners, Varun and Naval at Aavashyak Media, we are excited to share this part of our world with audiences worldwide. We couldn't have asked for a better partner than Netflix to help bring this vision to life. Featuring the Kapoor family icons across generations, Dining with the Kapoors invites you to grab a plate, because we've saved you a seat at our table! Hope you're hungry!"

THE GREATEST RIVALRY - INDIA VS PAKISTAN

On Netflix 2025

There is nothing like cricket to raise emotions in India. But passion hits new heights when it's a match between India and Pakistan! The Greatest Rivalry - India vs Pakistan chronicles the relationship between both countries, on and off-field. The docu-series is filled with emotions, cricketing action and humor as it presents two sides of a coin — the competitiveness and unlikely camaraderie shared between the two teams. Featuring legends like Sunil Gavaskar, Virinder Sehwag, Shoaib Akhtar, Ravi Ashwin, Inzamam-ul-Haq, Sourav Ganguly, and many others — dive into the greatest rivalry known to any cricket fan.

Producer-Director Chandradev Bhagat shares: "Sharing the story of cricket's greatest rivalry is an honour, especially from the experiences of living cricket legends. Partnering with Netflix has been exciting. It provides the opportunity to bring this account to global audiences, allowing them to relive iconic cricketing moments. The docu-series goes beyond the boundary ropes. It explores how the history, culture, and politics between the neighboring nations has shaped their rivalry on the field."

THE ROSHANS

On Netflix January 17, 2025

The Roshans tells the definitive story of one of the most influential families in Indian cinema history. It begins with the late music composer Roshan, who started this journey, and continues with his two sons Rakesh Roshan and Rajesh Roshan, who carried the legacy forward. The baton was then passed to the youngest Roshan, Hrithik Roshan, who became the heartthrob of the nation and continues to charm cinemagoers. The docuseries not only tells us about their hardship as a family in the film industry but also talks about their interpersonal dynamics and how they have always stood by each other through the lows and the highs. Featuring Shah Rukh Khan, Sanjay Leela Bhansali, Asha Bhosle and many more

Team Roshans shares: “It's overwhelming to be receiving all the unprecedented love, messages and feedback on The Roshans documentary. A big thank you to Netflix for giving us a global platform to put forward our story. The intention of this docu-series was to record in history the illustrious work and life of Roshan Saab and the three generations contribution, we are humbled by the positive response.”

VIR DAS FOOL VOLUME

On Netflix 2025

Should you talk about your happiness? Should it be protected? Or shared? This is a question everyone in the world is asking themselves. A world that International Emmy®-winning comedian Vir Das takes you through in a truly global comedy special shot in Mumbai, London, New York City and Tokyo. Having literally lost his voice as an artist a few weeks before the most important show of his career, he questions what we are all doing with ours. Silence or noise? Which one is the key...to joy?

Vir Das shares: "Comedy has the power to unite people across borders, and with this special, we're bringing a fresh, heartfelt perspective to laughter. Shot across countries, it's a journey through joy, love, and the noise of the world today. In this yet another special collaboration with Netflix, I'm honored to showcase Indian comedy on a global stage once again, because sometimes, laughter is the loudest answer."
