PREAMBLE

Use of this document

This document serves as a reference for the design and production of UCI World Champion jerseys/skinsuits.

The proportions and dimensions indicated are in accordance with the UCI Regulations and must therefore be respected.

It is also mandatory to use the colours set out in this document. If there is any doubt, preference should be given to the CMYK references.

The position of the rainbow stripes must not be altered.

All jerseys/skinsuits must be approved by the UCI before production.

Approval requests should be sent through the UCI Equipment approval online form as early as possible. The UCI staff will do its utmost to respond rapidly.

In line with the UCI Regulations, the UCI reserves the right to fine riders and/or teams which do not follow the UCI approval process and consequently produce jerseys/skinsuits that do not respect these guidelines.

UCI Rainbow Stripes

In 1927, the winner of the UCI Road Cycling World Championships was awarded for the first time a jersey bearing what has become the "Rainbow Stripes" mark, i.e. five horizontal stripes composed of colours blue, red, black, yellow and green (in this order).

Ever since, the winner of the UCI World Championships (now in all the disciplines of cycling) gets to wear the "Rainbow jersey".

The "Rainbow Stripes" mark has nowadays become a unique identifier of the UCI World Championships and of the UCI alone. The "Rainbow Stripes" is a brand of the UCI and is perceived as such by the public.

The "Rainbow Stripes" is registered internationally as a trademark in the name of the UCI.

The rainbow stripes must seamlessly go around the jersey, sleeves and collar.

it is required to apply a 30mm minimum distance between each integration on the jersey (sponsors' logos, rainbow stripes, riders' name etc.)

Do not hesitate to contact: design@uci.ch if any doubt remains.

Equipment

Only the current world champion rider may wear rainbow piping on his equipment (such as bike, helmet, shoes).

Any equipment bearing the rainbow piping shall be submitted to UCI for approval before production (art. 1.3.064).

Click here to access a list of equipment design guidelines available as an annexe to the Jersey Guidelines document.
