A YEAR OF CYCLING CAPTURED IN IMAGES

UNE ANNÉE DE CYCLISME EN IMAGES

DEAR FRIENDS,

In 2022, we have - at last! - been able to enjoy an almost normal sporting season, with the return of almost all of our World Championships and major events, after two years of severe disruption due to the international health situation. In this Yearbook, you will find a selection of the highlights from an extraordinary year of cycling events.

Women's cycling continued to progress with a magnificent first edition of the Tour de France Women avec Zwift. This was a phenomenal success - both in terms of the number of spectators on the roadside, and the TV audience -, and crowned an immense champion, Dutch rider Annemiek van Vleuten. The major UCI World Championships offered us their share of fulfilment and spectacle, such as the UCI World Championships for mountain bike in Les Gets (France), which brought together unprecedented crowds in an incredible and festive atmosphere, and those for road organised in Wollongong (Australia), which demonstrated that cycling was immensely popular, even more than 15,000 kilometres from its historical heartland. A traditional event par excellence, the UCI Hour Record timed by Tissot continued to inspire the greatest athletes and their fans. The proof? Two of the best rouleurs of their generation, Ellen Van Dijk (NED) and Filippo Ganna (ITA) set new records in the wake of their illustrious predecessors. And cycling continued to innovate, incorporating new events. The latest? The UCI Gravel World Championships, which took place in Veneto (Italy) at the beginning of October.

A growing sport, and an activity that is increasingly practised and more relevant than ever, cycling has a bright future. I would like to thank all those who help our sport to progress, by practising it, following it or supporting it in one way or another.

David LAPPARTIENT

President of the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI)
Member of the International Olympic Committee (IOC)

CHERS AMIS,

En 2022, nous avons – enfin ! – pu vivre une saison sportive presque normale, avec notamment le retour de la quasi-totalité de nos Championnats du Monde et événements majeurs, après deux ans fortement perturbés par la situation sanitaire internationale. Vous retrouverez dans ce Yearbook une sélection des grands moments d'une année extraordinaire au vu des temps forts qui l'ont ponctuée.

Le cyclisme féminin a poursuivi sa marche en avant avec une première édition magnifique du Tour de France Femmes avec Zwift qui a rencontré un succès phénoménal, tant en termes de nombre de spectateurs présents le long des routes que d'audiences TV, et sacré une immense championne, la Néerlandaise Annemiek van Vleuten. Les grands Championnats du Monde UCI nous ont offert leur lot de satisfaction et de spectacle, à l'image des Mondiaux UCI de mountain bike des Gets (France), qui ont réuni des foules sans précédent dans une ambiance de fête inouïe, ou de ceux du cyclisme sur route, organisés à Wollongong (Australie), qui ont démontré que le cyclisme était immensément populaire même à plus de 15'000 kilomètres de son cœur historique. Événement traditionnel par excellence, le Record de l'Heure UCI chronométré par Tissot a continué à faire rêver les plus grands athlètes et leurs fans. La preuve ? Deux des meilleurs rouleurs de leur génération, Ellen Van Dijk (NED) et Filippo Ganna (ITA) ont établi de nouveaux records dans la foulée de leurs illustres prédecesseurs. Et le cyclisme a continué d'innover, en intégrant de nouveaux événements. Dernier en date ? Les Championnats du Monde Gravel UCI qui se sont déroulés en Vénétie (Italie) au début du mois d'octobre.

Sport en croissance, et activité de plus en plus pratiquée et plus pertinente que jamais, le cyclisme a un brillant avenir. Je remercie toutes celles et tous ceux qui font avancer notre sport, en le pratiquant, en le suivant ou en le soutenant d'une manière ou d'une autre.

David LAPPARTIENT

2022 - A YEAR OF SOLIDARITY

The UCI supports its Continental Confederations and National Federations in their work to develop cycling. To this end, it has both a Solidarity Programme providing them with various types of assistance (training, equipment, funding and advice), and a high-level training and education centre - the UCI World Cycling Centre (WCC) - located in Aigle (Switzerland), where athletes and people working in professions related to our sport come to strengthen their skills. But sometimes, members of the cycling family are confronted with dramatic events that threaten their freedom to live their passion for cycling. When urgency dictates, it can become necessary to act. The UCI did just this in two situations during the past year: the Taliban coming into power in Afghanistan, which had terrible consequences on the daily lives of the country's inhabitants, particularly women; and the invasion of Ukraine by the Russian regime. In the first case, the UCI and its partners, including the Afghanistan Cycling Federation, contributed to the exfiltration of endangered members of the Afghan cycling community and welcomed some of them at the UCI WCC, where the Women's Road Championships of Afghanistan were organised in October 2022. In the second case, the UCI welcomed members of the Ukrainian Cycling Federation to Aigle. Unable to train and race normally in their own country, cyclists from Ukraine can continue to do so in complete safety in Switzerland and the rest of the world. This solidarity towards members of the cycling community in need is fully in line with the Olympic spirit, upheld by the UCI and all its affiliates.

2022 - UNE ANNÉE DE SOLIDARITÉ

L'UCI soutient ses Confédérations Continentales et Fédérations Nationales dans leur travail de développement du cyclisme. Pour cela, elle dispose à la fois d'un Programme de Solidarité leur apportant différents types d'aide (formations, équipements, financements et conseil), et d'un centre d'entraînement et de formation de haut niveau – le Centre Mondial du Cyclisme (CMC) UCI – situé à Aigle (en Suisse), où des athlètes et des personnes exerçant des métiers en lien avec notre sport viennent renforcer leurs compétences. Mais parfois, des membres de la famille cycliste sont confrontés à des événements dramatiques qui menacent leur liberté, notamment celle de vivre leur passion pour le cyclisme. Lorsque l'urgence le commande, il peut être nécessaire d'agir. C'est ce qu'a fait l'UCI dans deux situations durant l'année écoulée : celle de l'arrivée au pouvoir des talibans en Afghanistan aux terribles conséquences sur le quotidien des habitants du pays, en particulier les femmes, et celle de l'invasion de l'Ukraine par le régime russe. Dans le premier cas, l'UCI, avec ses partenaires, dont la Fédération Cycliste d'Afghanistan, a contribué à l'exfiltration de membres de la communauté cycliste afghane en danger et accueilli une partie d'entre eux au CMC UCI, où les Championnats d'Afghanistan Route Femmes ont été organisés en octobre 2022. Dans le second cas, l'UCI a accueilli à Aigle des membres de la Fédération Cycliste Ukrainienne qui, dans l'impossibilité de s'entraîner et de courir normalement chez eux, peuvent en revanche continuer de le faire en toute sécurité en Suisse et dans le reste du monde. Cette solidarité envers les membres de la communauté cycliste qui en ont besoin s'inscrit pleinement dans l'esprit olympique porté par l'UCI et l'ensemble de ses affiliés.

FROM A DIFFERENT ANGLE

THERE IS MORE TO CYCLING THAN PERFORMANCES AND RESULTS. IT ALSO SERVES UP MANY MOMENTS OF GRACE, HIGH DRAMA AND SCENES OF UNBRIDLED JOY.

UN AUTRE REGARD

LE SPORT CYCLISTE NE SE LIMITE PAS À LA PERFORMANCE ET AUX RÉSULTATS. IL EST AUSSI LA SOMME DES INSTANTS DE GRÂCE, DES MOMENTS GRAVES ET DES ÉCLATS DE JOIE QU'IL NOUS PROCURE EN ABONDANCE.
