INTRODUCING EMETERIA, OUR FIRST GAME DEVELOPMENT STUDIO!

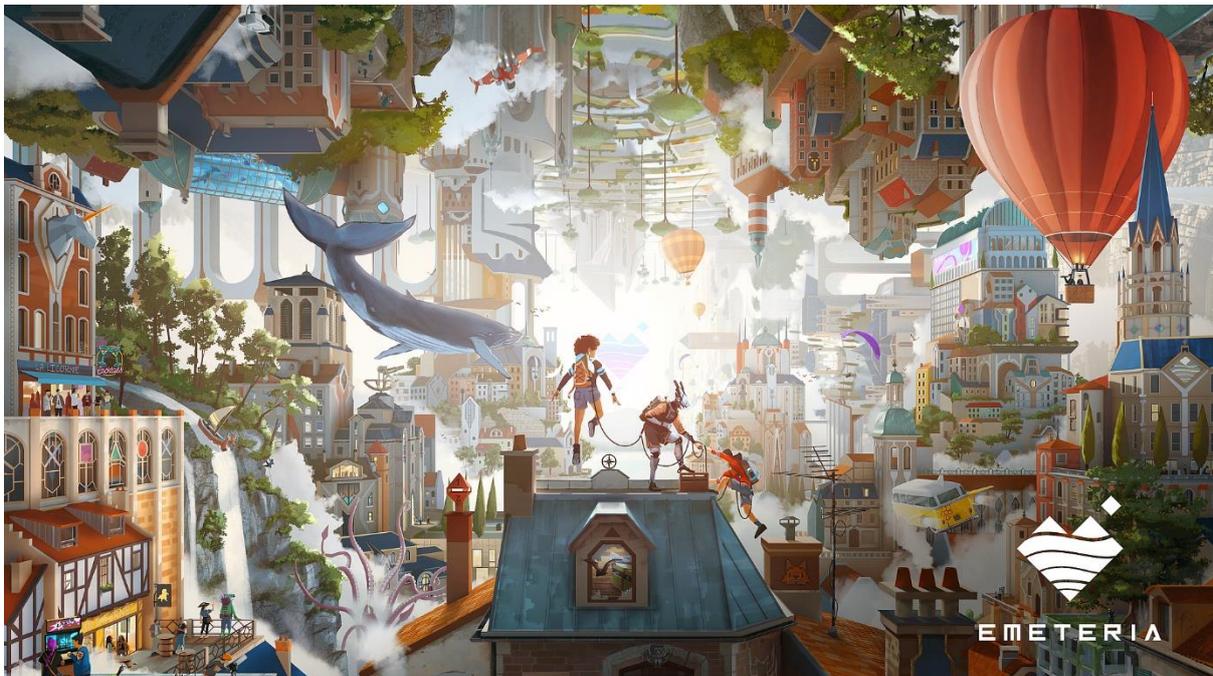

We are delighted to unveil the identity of our very first New Tales studio.

Based in Lyon, France, Emeteria has embarked on a quest to CRAFT MEMORABLE GAMES. Formed by experienced, passionate, and good-hearted game developers, the team has already shipped collectively over 70 games, including some set in iconic IPs such as Styx, Warhammer, Ghost Recon, Alone in the Dark, Endless, The Crew, VRally... The studio is working already on our first Action-Adventure RPG game, set in an ambitious, brand-new IP, using cutting-edge technologies such as Unreal Engine.

To learn more about the New Tales Emeteria Studio, be sure to check out emeteria.com.

We are actively recruiting new adventurers to join the team and welcomes explorers from every horizon as we are committed to diversity and inclusion. If you want to contribute to our vision and think you can unlock uncharted territories for the team to explore, look for our latest job offers and send an application!

Welcome to the gaming industry Emeteria, we can't wait to share with the world in the coming months what the team has been working on!
