Impact Report

#doMOREgood

A message from our CEO

At Cross River, we live by our core values—Humility, Integrity, Creativity, Compassion and Responsibility. They form the bedrock of our convictions, give us purpose and create the space to continue to do good as we grow.

Doing good through giving is part of our DNA. Our commitment to others began the day we opened our doors; we embraced the drive to keep becoming better and make the world a better place. Above all, we do good because it is the right thing to do. We are proud of what we've done over these past 16 years and Cross River commits to continue to answer the call.

These values drive the core of our business model. We view every loan we originate and every payment we process as enabling our partners to provide access to funds to those who need it most – whether it be those trying to afford everyday life, or whomever simply needs access to their funds faster. We started Cross River in the midst of a financial crisis, with the goal of being a different type of institution, bent on making a difference through financial inclusion and literacy, accessibility to credit and democratization of banking services.

Through these, we've witnessed the change in consumer behavior, happiness and financial stability. We applied the same vision and laser focused strategy during COVID-19. The pandemic had a devastating impact on small businesses. Through our technology, partnerships with fintechs, a healthy dose of compassion and a sense of responsibility, we said “Yes” where many said “No” and assisted close to 500,000 small businesses with average PPP loan size of $27,000. We wholeheartedly believe in our mantra and remain steadfast in bringing solutions to modern day problems, while never compromising on consumer protection and adherence to the rules of engagement.

While we do this at scale and programmatically at the business level, we are fortunate to have a Foundation that enables us to do this on an even more personal level, and ultimately reinvest the proceeds from our business to impact even further.

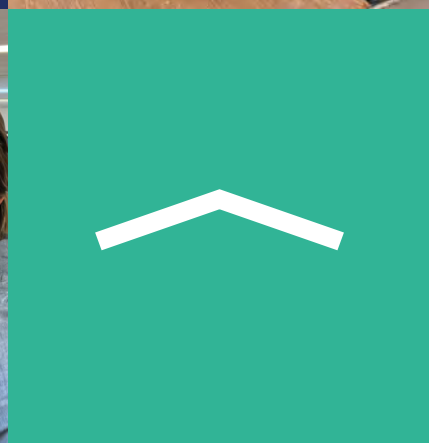

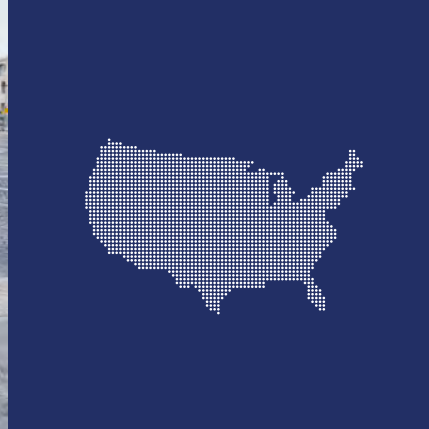

Through our partnership with hundreds of charitable organizations worldwide, we've come to learn and appreciate that the genuine heroism of the people doing the work lies not in grand gestures or displays of strength, but in everyday acts of kindness, compassion and unity. We're privileged to witness this firsthand, daily.

I'm pleased to share our 2023 Foundation@ Impact Report. As you explore its pages, I know you'll share our marvel at the inspiring stories, empowering initiatives and reaffirming outcomes from diverse organizations—all a testament to our collective commitment to fostering the greater good. Each narrative within these pages underscores the remarkable potential we unlock when we unite with purpose and resolve.

Thank you for empowering us to extend our impact even further,
and to do even more good.

The 50 States of Philanthropy

In April 2022, our commitment to giving and providing support to the communities we serve was formalized through the creation of Foundation@ Cross River. With a rededication to social responsibility and a fortified emphasis on Impactful Philanthropy, serving as the “IP Address for Doing Good”, our role as a communal philanthropic juggernaut was established.

The 50 States of (Impactful) Philanthropy is Foundation@ Cross River’s 50-state approach to giving. Cross River’s giving efforts seek to provide support for organizations that align with the Foundation@ mission statement or fulfill a specific humanitarian need, within and beyond our assessment area. "Giving Without Borders" recognizes that answering the call for help should not always be dependent on the location of that call. While Cross River may be physically based in New Jersey, our services reach far beyond state lines —as does our giving.

At Cross River, we are fueled by our desire to serve the historically underserved, providing services to those in need, no matter where.
