Non-Verbal Reasoning Practice Section

(5 minutes)

This practice section gives an example of the sort of questions you will be faced with in this test, with the correct answer filled in on the answer sheet so that you can see how to do it.

There are also some practice questions that don't have the answers filled in, so that you can practise working them out for yourself and filling in the answer sheet.

In these questions, there are five figures. You must work out which is most unlike the other four and mark its letter on your answer sheet.

Choose the correct figure and mark it on your answer sheet.

A Example

The answer is a.

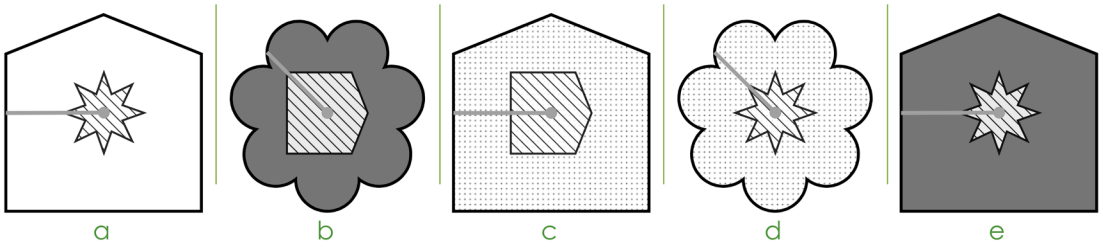
1 Practice

Choose the figure that is the odd one out.



In these questions, one of the small squares in the matrix has been left empty. One of the five figures underneath should fill the empty square.

Choose the correct figure and mark it on your answer sheet.

B Example

The answer is b.

2 Practice

Which figure should fill the empty square?

In these questions, a square of paper is folded in the sequence shown. The next shape shows the paper unfolded, with holes.

You must choose the figure that that shows where the holes were punched. Choose the correct figure and mark it on your answer sheet.

C Example

The answer is b.

3 Practice

Choose the figure that that shows where the holes were punched.
