

50% of all people
with cancer are afraid to tell
their employers.

But not enough company leaders and companies are aware of this fact. So this is a pledge from those in charge, to take charge.

We aim to abolish the stigma and insecurity that exist for people with cancer in the workplace. We stand together to provide a more open, supportive and recovery-forward culture at work for all employees with cancer.

Join us at #workingwithcancer

