

Hana Khouri
CEO and President, Drive Shack

Hana Khouri joined Drive Shack Inc. (NYSE:DS) as president in August 2019. In November 2019 she took on the additional role of CEO. Khouri comes to Drive Shack from New Fortress Energy, where she held the position of chief of staff to the company's chief executive officer chairman, Wes Edens.

Prior to this, Khouri served as both national and international director of operations at Topgolf. Pivotal to the exponential and global growth of the brand, Khouri developed the opening strategy for new stores and created Topgolf's operational playbook for international partners, helping standardize processes across the U.S. and overseas. In a three-year period, she successfully opened more than 20 locations worldwide including the company's flagship venues in Las Vegas and Nashville, and its first international location in Australia.

Khouri's expansive background in the field of entertainment began at Live Nation, the world's leading live entertainment company, where she served as director of operations for the House of Blues in Houston. Khouri was responsible transforming the Houston outlet into one of the top performing venues in the country, ultimately ranking second nationwide for performance and first in membership renewals and new sales. She also led operations and venue programming for a number of prominent events across the Houston area.
