Lotus Signature Series: The Luminary™ Air Fry & Convection Oven

Versatile Performance, Designed to Fit Beautifully Into Everyday Cooking

For home cooks who want versatility without sacrificing countertop space, the Lotus Signature Series Air Fry & Convection Oven delivers powerful, intuitive performance in a thoughtfully designed mid-size form. Equipped with a 2-speed fan for dedicated Air Fry or Convection cooking, The Luminary transitions seamlessly from crisp weeknight meals to slow-cooked favorites with precision and ease.

A wide range of cooking functions support everyday flexibility. Core favorites include Bake, Roast, Air Fry, Toast, Bagel, and Broil, while specialty modes such as Warm, Dehydrate, and Slow Cook expand what's possible on the countertop. An optional convection setting in Bake or Roast modes offers added control, allowing cooks and bakers to fine-tune texture, timing, and results.

A full-color, interactive touchscreen puts customization at the user's fingertips, making it easy to select functions, adjust settings, and monitor progress immediately. Designed for confidence in every dish, The Luminary features an integrated temperature probe for precise doneness and an interior light that provides clear visibility throughout the cooking process.
