In the spotlight— Danielle Brooks

The Orange is the New Black and Karma's World actress is used to unpredictable hours on set, but now she's finding stability in her most important role yet - Mom.

I'm finally finding the patience and routine I've been searching for, now that I'm Mom to my two-year-old daughter [Freeya]. I'm more calm-spirited. I know that I carry a lot of external happiness, positivity and joy, which I still have, but I think it's found a quieter way of landing in my body. When I feel frustrated, I stop, think and say, "Danielle, you can take one more second to just breathe." I'm learning what I'm capable of, and the cool part about being a parent is how much your child teaches you.

I've always had a tough time finding a routine for myself, but with her, I'm very much on a routine when it comes to bedtime. Every night, I turn on some dance music and let her dance. Then I'll say, "Okay, it's time to read," and we'll read together. Sometimes it'll be one book; sometimes it'll be three books. And then we say our prayers, and I cannot tell you what it does to me to hear my child say amen in her little baby voice every night. Then, I'll put her to bed. I turn her humidifier on, kiss her forehead, tuck her in, and she's knocked out. Parenting is all about discovering a new part of who you are. It's my new normal.

Mason Impossible

1

The Action Pack is learning about dinosaurs and will dig for bones. Treena's friend Mason joins in the fun.

2

Before they can go to the dig site, everyone must practice by carefully digging for eggs in the sandbox.

3

Everyone finds an egg without breaking it, except for Mason who is extra strong. Mason gets upset...it's not fair!

4

Mason yells and stomps his feet. Soon, a giant rock falls in front of the site. The kids are trapped inside!

5

Clay tries to calm Mason down. Together they sing, "...take a deep breath and turn your day around," until the shaking stops.

6

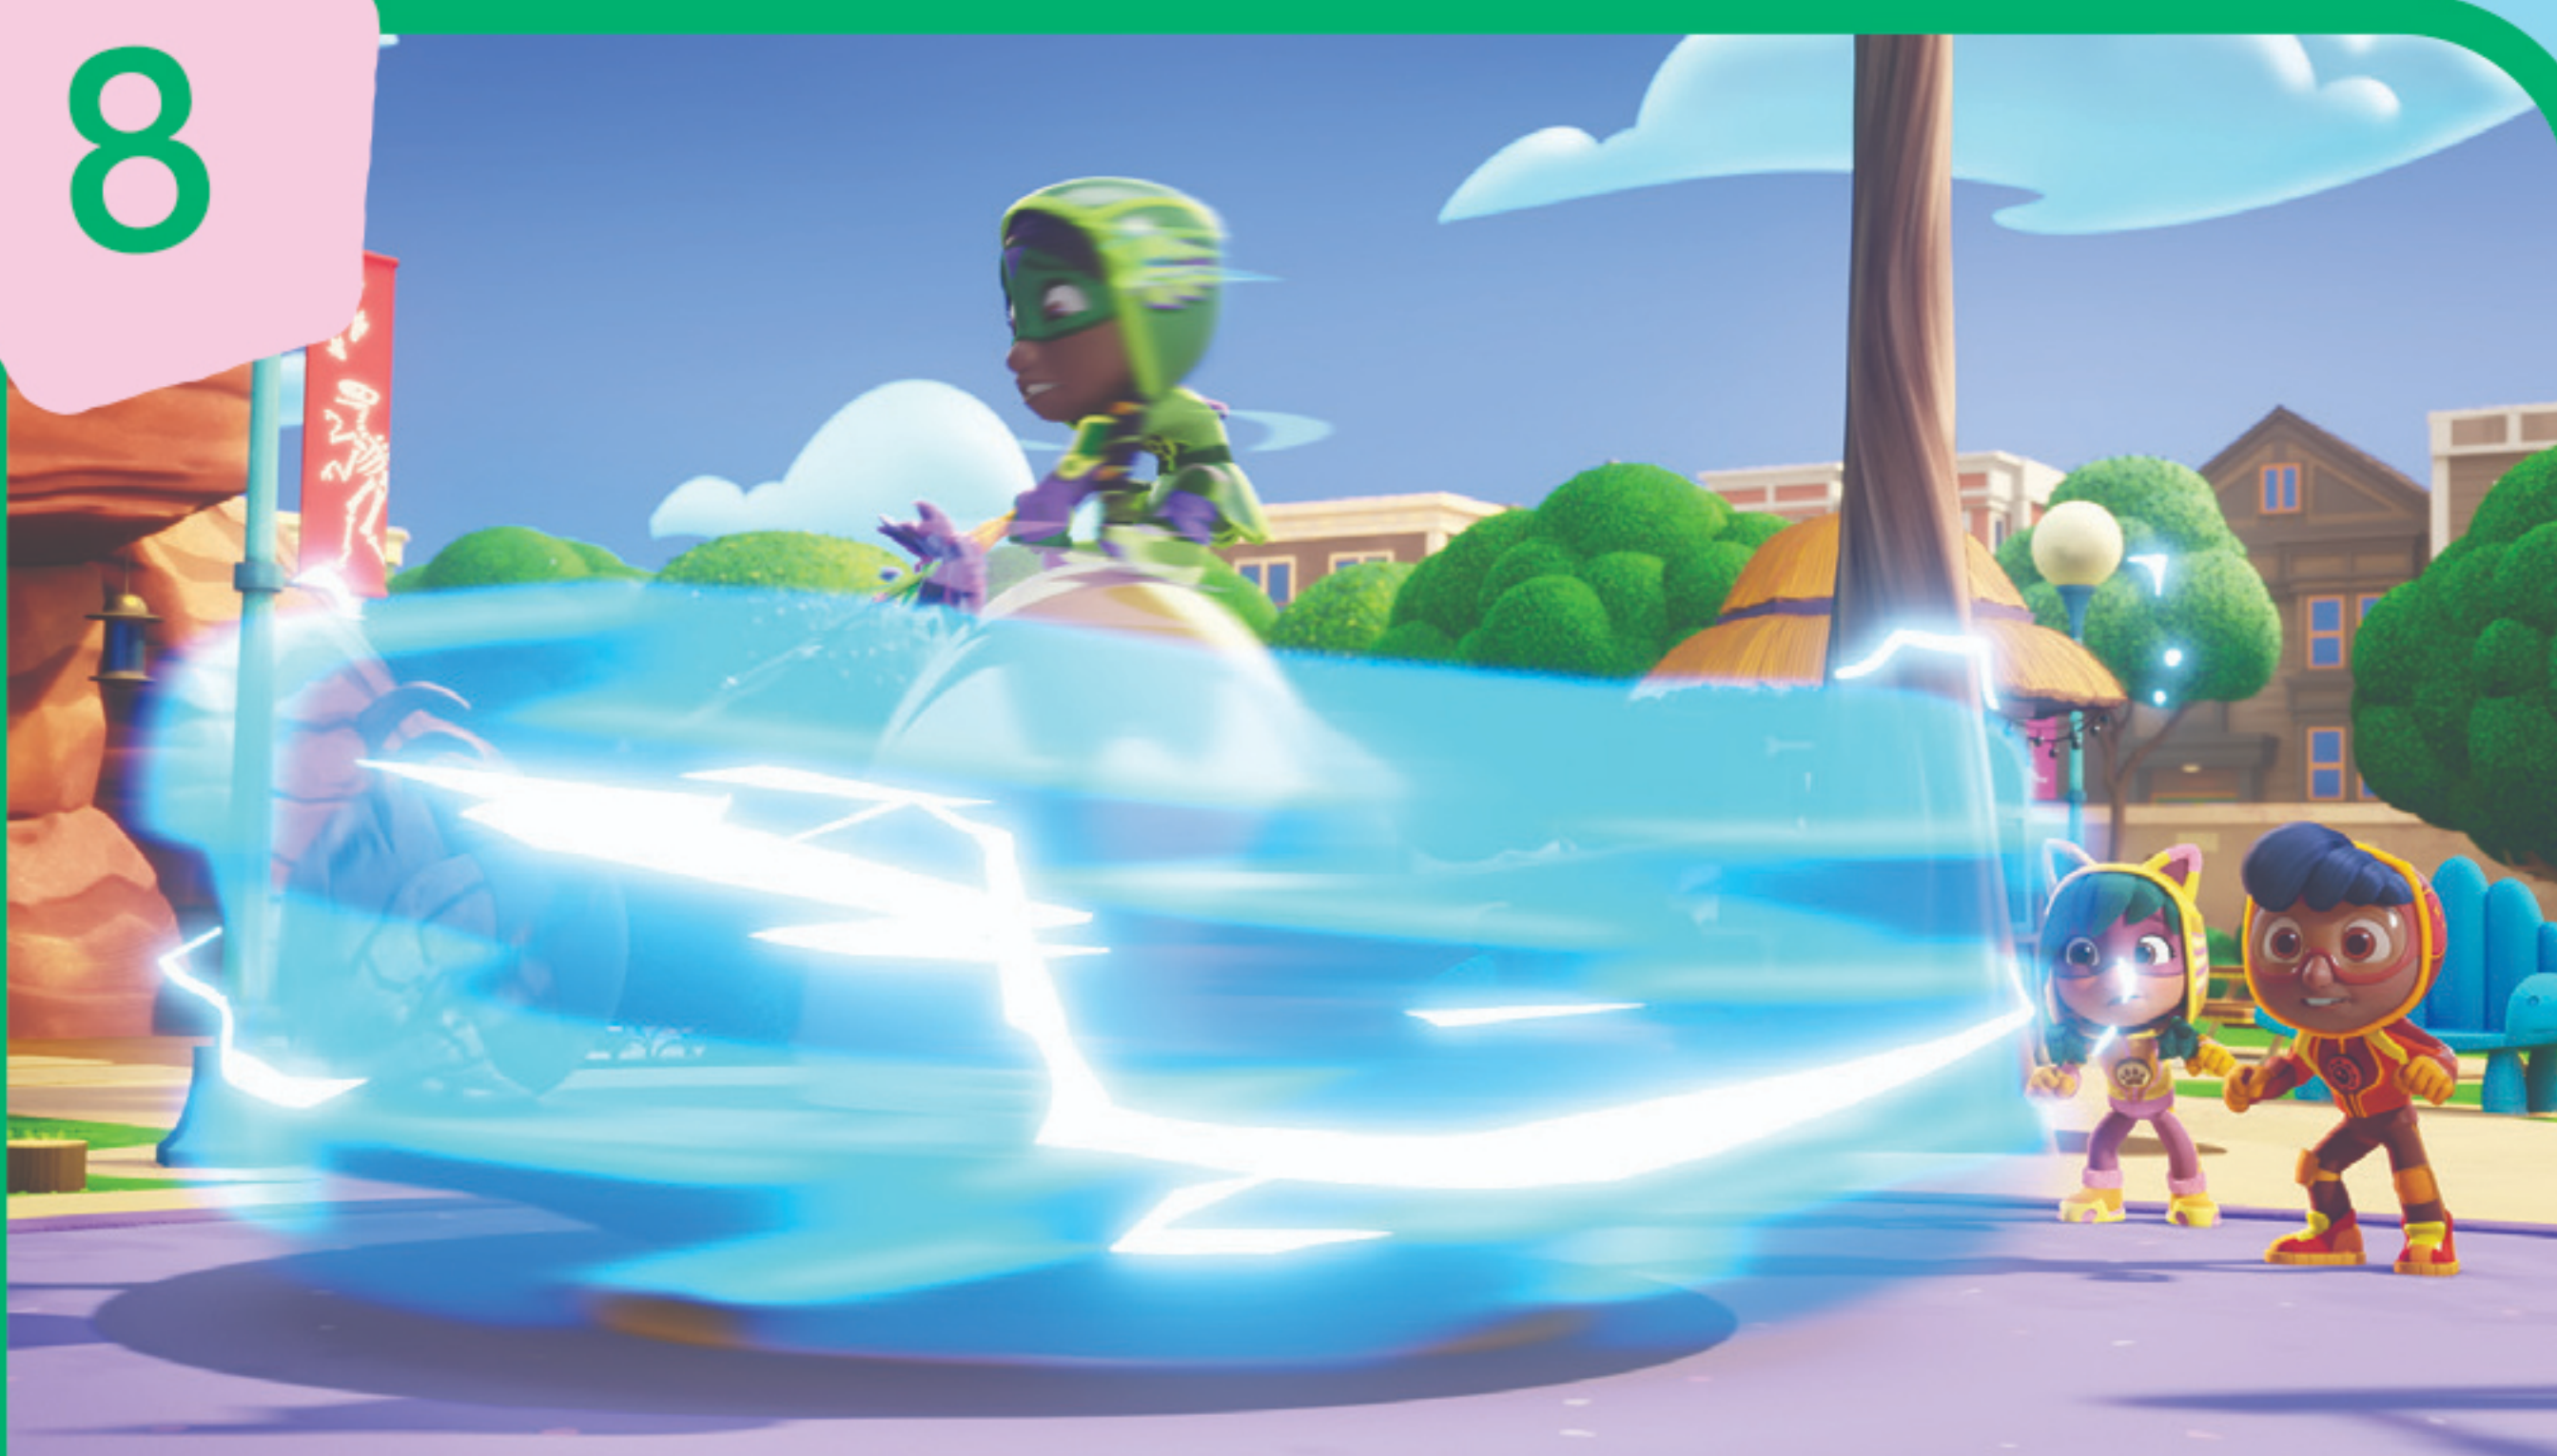

Meanwhile, the Pack realizes it needs Mason's strength to break up the rock so they can rescue the trapped kids.

7

But Mason sees the trouble his strength caused and is scared. Clay explains that if Mason controls his feelings, he can help.

8

It's time for a team-up! The Pack spins Mason on the merry-go-round fast enough to launch him into the giant rock.

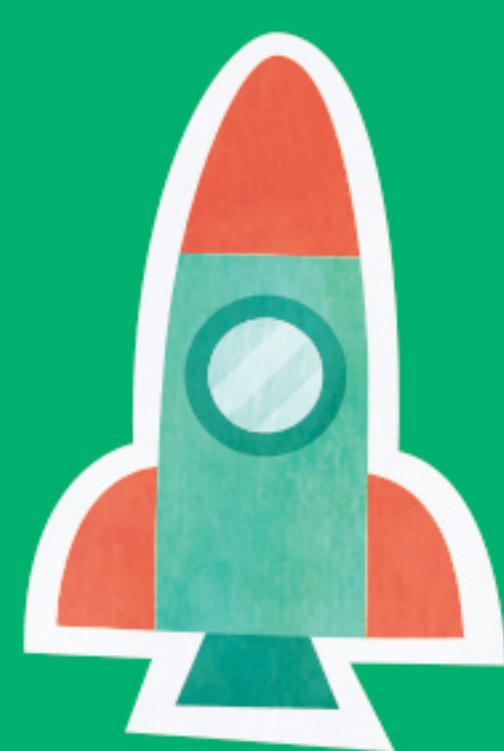

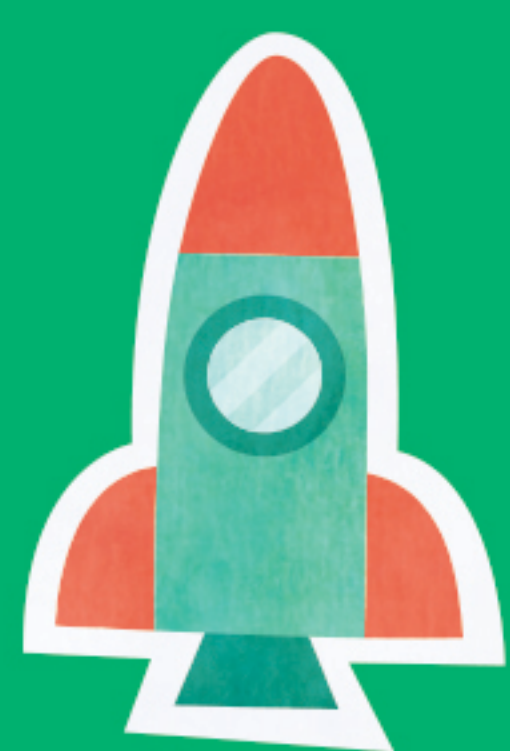

9

BOOM! With Mason's help, the Action Pack breaks the giant rock and saves the day. Mission accomplished!

What do Firefighters do?

When a building is burning and someone's in trouble, the FIREFIGHTER has to be there on the double!

You might keep the engine all SHINY and RED ...

And there's always the FIRE DOG who's got to be fed.

All of a sudden, there goes the ALARM.
It's time to protect some people from harm!

You jump to the POLE and you SLIDE DOWN below.

You throw on your GEAR and you're ready to GO!

You SPEED through the city.

You've got to make haste.

When houses are BURNING ,
there's no time to waste!

You stop to grab hold of the HOSE that you'll need...

...then dash to the FIRE
with all possible speed!

You SPRAY the whole house,
really give it a soak, till the flames are all gone,
leaving only the SMOKE .

But what if the HOSE has to reach a bit higher? You climb up the LADDER to put out the fire!

And sometimes you

RESCUE

the people inside.

It's DANGEROUS work,
but you do it with

PRIDE.

You might even help with

FIRST AID when you're free...

...or rescue a CAT that got stuck in a TREE.

Then after you're finished,
it's time to HEAD BACK ...

...for a WELL-DESERVED REST and
a GOOD, HEARTY SNACK.

And what a good feeling the CREW gets to share! For everyone's SAFE when a firefighter's there.
