Well, they always strike at night, see? And folks always hear strange noises right before their sticks are stolen.

LET'S MAKE IT!

KPop Demon Hunters Charm

Let's learn two kinds of Korean knots: the Dorae (doh·leh) Knot and the Saengjjok (seyng·joak) Knot! The Korean art of knotting is called maedeup (meh·doop).

NORIGAE (noh·ree·gae)

Rumi, Mira, and Zoey all wear norigae, a traditional Korean accessory and good-luck charm. People decorate their norigae with ornaments and tassels, just like Zoey did with her favorite animal — a turtle!

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- ☐ Cord (minimum 45 cm) — Here we use a 3 mm cord. Start by learning on a 4 or 5 mm cord
- ☐ Key ring (optional)
- ☐ Beads and charms — Just make sure they'll fit on your cord
- ☐ Patience — Learning maedeup takes time and practice

Scan here for a YouTube tutorial on how to create your KPop Demon Hunters charm!

DORAE KNOT

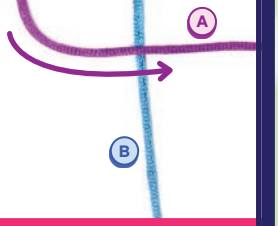

1

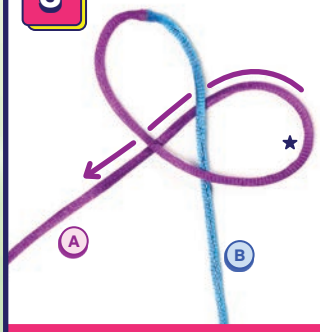

Start by making an upside-down U.

2

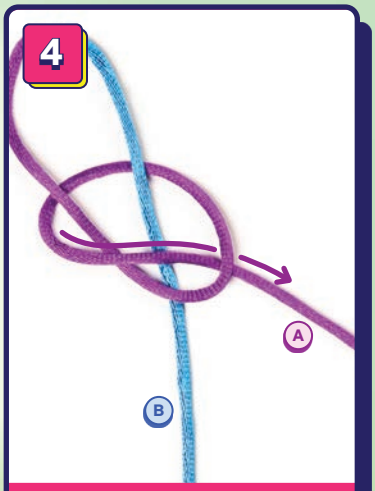

Cross A over B.

3

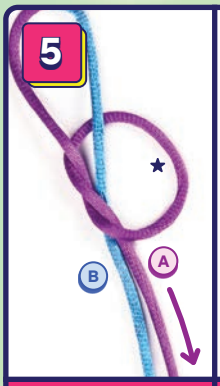

Pass A under B to make a loop.★

4

Pass A down through the loop.

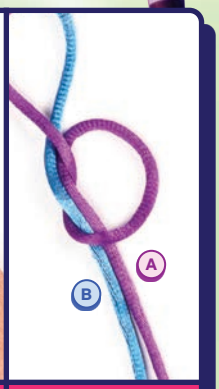

5

First, pull down on A, but make sure to keep a loop.★

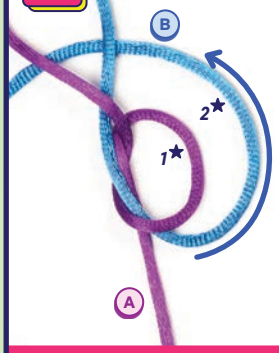

Second, pinch just below the loop to hold A and B in place as you move the loop to the left. Rotate the loop around A and B in a full circle — just like a hula hoop!

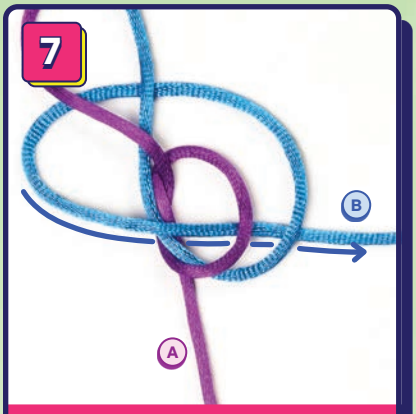

Now your cord should look like this.

6

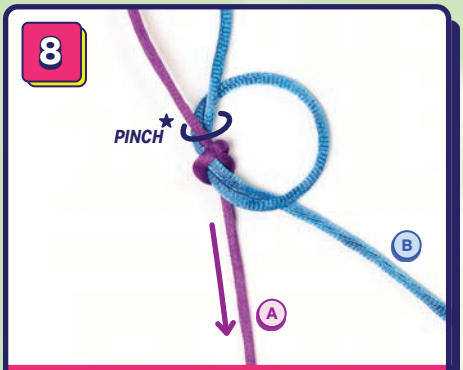

Take B and follow the shape of the loop. Now you should have two loops side by side.★

7

Pass the end of B through both loops.

8

It's time to tighten your knot! Gently pinch above both loops★ to hold everything in place as you pull down on A.

9

TIP: If you need to adjust anything, gently pull on the cords above and below your knot until it looks how you want

Keep gently pinching★ and pull B to finish your knot so it looks like an X.
