

Entry 54: Dr. Hollis Lufkin, Psychiatrist-1

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Hollis Lufkin, M.D.*
4433 23rd N.E.
Ruston, Major 98105

Education

Undergraduate: Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts
Degree: B.S. Biological Sciences, 20XX-18 to 20XX-14.

Medical School: Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland
Degree: M.D., 20XX-14 to 20XX-10.

Internship & Residency: College of Physicians and Surgeons at the Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, 20XX-10 to 20XX-7.

Post-Doctoral Study: Visiting Scholar in Residence—University of Major Medical School. Granted National Institute of Health (NIH) Fellowship for Young Scientists to obtain Ph.D., 20XX-7 to 20XX-6.

Honors, Awards, Associations

Board certified as a psychiatrist—American Psychiatric Association.

Professional Activities

Affiliated Professor of Research, Johns Hopkins Medical School (6 months), 20XX-1.

Assistant Professor of Medicine in Psychiatry, Johns Hopkins Medical School, 20XX-6 to 20XX-3.

Associate Professor of Medicine in Psychiatry, Johns Hopkins Medical School (tenure since 20XX-1) (on leave for 2 years).

Private Psychiatric Practice, Deer Park, Maryland—3 days per week, 20XX-4 to present.

Publications

Lufkin & Skelly, "The Developmental Psychologist's Response to Psychoanalytical Status," 54 Proceedings of Psych. 821 (20XX-1).

* Dr. Lufkin is a follower of the psychodynamic school of psychiatry. The psychodynamic school of thought emphasizes that behavior cannot be predicted successfully.