OUR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA SUMMERS

have it all - mountains, desert, ocean, days drenched in sun and cool balmy nights beneath clear, starry skies. Indeed, we are very rich in summer stay-and-play options throughout the southland including the towns along our winding coastline of vibrant contrasts in natural beauty. We also have a variety of magnificent resorts fronting warm, white sand beaches intermingled with rugged shorelines pounded by crashing breakers, challenging surfers of all skill levels.

Escape to SANTA MONICA

Located on Santa Monica Bay in one of So Cal's most desirable oceanside communities is Shutters on the Beach, situated right on the sand at their signature address of 1 Pico Boulevard. Just minutes from the Santa Monica Pier, trendy shopping, galleries, fine restaurants and bars, the resort has three separate buildings linked by richly-detailed shingled siding, flower-covered trellises, balconies and cabana-striped awnings.

The public rooms feature custom furnishings with white wood-paneling, two large fireplaces with comfortable conversation areas and a large balcony overlooking the ocean. Original artwork, lithographs and objets d'art add to the warm, yet sophisticated ambience. Accommodations designed by Michael S. Smith include 186 sumptuous guest rooms and 12 suites designed with understated elegance. All have a reading library, four-poster beds, lounge chairs, with most offering sliding shuttered doors opening onto balconies, unveiling panoramas of the ocean and coastline. All rooms have 42-inch flat screen LCD televisions with entertainment systems, high speed internet, safe, spacious baths with 15" LCD televisions and large whirlpool bathtubs. Rooms accommodating needs of the physically challenged are also available.

The 12 private suites with spectacular views have additional accessories including coffee table books, magazines and games. The two luxurious one-bedroom 1,350 sq. ft. presidential suites in the Ocean House and one 1,500 sq. ft. suite in the Beach House offer oversized whirlpool bathtubs, living room fireplaces, dining tables for six, and galley kitchens with full-sized refrigerators.

Restaurants include 1 Pico, serving refined fare overlooking the Pacific Ocean and Coast Beach Café and Bar where you can dine indoors or out for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Tuesdays feature Pasta on the Patio and Thursday is Aperitivo Night with hand-selected Italian vinos and craft cocktails served with Italian charcuterie, artisanal cheeses and antipasti.
