A NONPROFIT CHANGING LIVES

Lifesaving Report

Fiscal Year 2025

Every adoption, every reunion, every pet living a longer, healthier life with the people who love them is proof that when love leads the way, lives are saved. And it's these moments that remind us why we do this work.

As I reflect on fiscal year 2025, I am filled with gratitude for the people who turn love into lifesaving action. Your compassion gives pets a chance to be safe, to be cared for, and loved.

Thanks to your generosity, we invested in animal welfare partners across the country, empowering dedicated teams to help more pets find loving homes and reunite those who already have them. Behind the investments and work is a shared belief that every pet deserves love.

Your support advanced the power of Petco Love Lost, helping more lost pets return home to the families who were missing them. Now, every four minutes, a lost pet is reunited with their family. Each reunion turns worry into relief and brings back the everyday moments that families have missed: a familiar greeting, a favorite walk, a companion curled up beside them.

With your help, we continued to combat preventable pet diseases by distributing free pet vaccines to participating partner organizations to administer at clinics in underserved communities. This ensures access barriers don't stand in the way of pets' health, giving pet families more time together.

The impact you'll see throughout this report belongs to all of us. Every time you support Petco Love, you help turn a shared commitment into another chance for a pet and create a meaningful difference for the people who love them.

As Petco Love's new President, I am honored to carry this work forward. Our mission remains clear: make communities and pet families closer, stronger and healthier. We will continue investing in our partners, pursuing innovative solutions, and bringing communities together to make that future possible.

Thank you for believing in our mission and helping us bring it to life. Every pet welcomed home, every family reunited, and every act of care is a reminder that love saves lives.

With heartfelt gratitude and love,

Chelsea Staley

- Dawn Wallace, Executive Director, Lost Dog & Cat Rescue Foundation

"Adopting Yuki has changed everything. She's made our home louder, funnier, and infinitely warmer. She's taught us to slow down and laugh more, to find joy in the little things, and to let love take center stage in the everyday."

Kamala + Max

When Max went missing, Kamala created a lost pet profile. “Miraculously, within minutes I got a possible match. It was a picture of my Max looking back at me. I was overcome,” she said.

Thanks to our innovative photo-matching technology, Kamala was quickly connected to the neighbors who reported Max as found. Max was back home with Kamala just hours after he went missing.

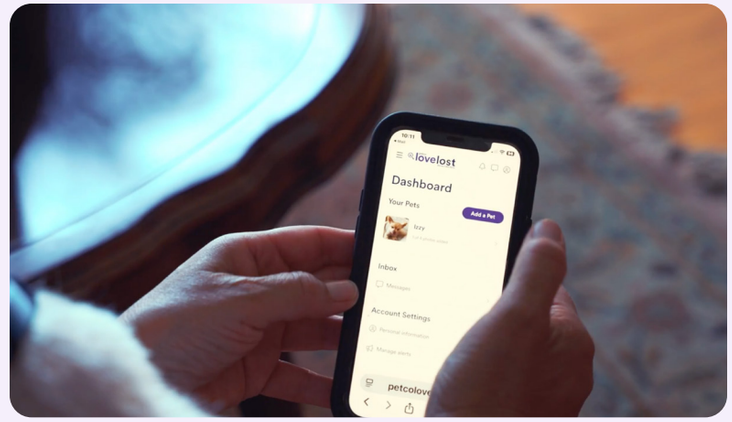

Petco Love Lost Reunites a Lost Pet Every 4 Minutes

Collars break, tags wear down and microchips can't always be scanned.

Our photo-matching technology analyzes over 500 visual markers in a pet’s photos and searches for matches with found pet reports from community members, shelters, rescues, and social media platforms like Nextdoor and Neighbors by Ring.

Petco Love Lost brings pets home using what's always with them: their unique physical features.

- Paighton Corley, Executive Director, Hill Country Humane Society

Helping Heroes

We bolster efforts to train and support pets who dedicate their lives to saving and improving the lives of others, including helping military and contract working dogs retire at home.

Wendy is one of several veterans across the country profoundly impacted by Petco Love's Helping Heroes initiative.
