As ever, we've got a packed programme of performances, events and experiences, with something for all ages and interests. From toe-tapping music to mind-blowing talks, laugh-out-loud comedy to heartwarming family favourites, this summer is bursting with unmissable moments.

This season is particularly strong for families, with theatrical adventures including Dinosaur World Live, In the Night Garden Live, and interactive events like the returning WiFi Wars. Comedy continues to be a major part of our programme, with appearances from Jimmy Carr, Jason Manford, Henning Wehn, Ardal O'Hanlon, and many others. Music fans can enjoy standout events such as Queen by Candlelight, The Illegal Eagles, and Vitamin String Quartet bring the music from Taylor Swift, Bridgerton and Beyond.

SUPPORT OUR 2025 SUMMER YOUTH PROJECT: ANNIE

Each year, our Summer Youth Project offers a unique and transformative opportunity for young people aged 8-18 to step into the magical world of theatre. Over just two weeks of intensive rehearsals, participants work alongside professional directors, choreographers, and musicians to stage three live performances in our main house auditorium.

This exciting initiative is produced by our Creative Learning department, the charitable arm of our organisation. As part of the Trafalgar Trust (a registered charity), the Creative Learning department runs a wide variety of inclusive, community-focused programmes year-round. These include half-term workshops, free family fun days, local festivals, craft cafés, and dementia-friendly cinema screenings, all aimed at enriching lives through creativity and shared experiences.

But projects like the Summer Youth Project rely heavily on external funding and support. In order to keep participation affordable and inclusive, we are seeking vital funds to ensure Annie can take to the stage in summer 2025.

Thanks to generous support from Howdens Insurance, we've already been able to offer two bursary places to young people who may otherwise have missed out on this invaluable experience. This is just one example of how sponsorship can make a tangible difference.

Your support, whether through fundraising, sponsorship, or donation, plays a crucial role in helping us continue to educate, entertain and inspire our local community. By contributing, you're not just supporting a production; you're empowering young people, building confidence, fostering creativity, and opening doors to lifelong memories.

Help us bring Annie to life and ensure the curtain rises on another unforgettable summer.
