PUBLICATION SCHEMES

They've been rethinking, looking at FOI AND DP.

Model publication scheme "absolutely fine"

They monitored central govt last yr. + Parl + regulators.
[FOI stuff - this is something for [redacted] to get stuck into]

Expenses publication

Moved into good practice.

[redacted] - ICO has no huge issues.

Thought needed more clarity about the review process

For all suppliers etc - make sure if details are published that suppliers should not be from [redacted] Exempt salaries of MPs' staff?

Salary bands (£5K), is the general approach. They wouldn't have an issue with exempt salaries. Exempt salaries don't lead to themselves to bands.

Start with narrow bands and make wider later?

MPs with disabilities

Under DPA - any medical data is sensitive. Is the disability person in the public domain.

[redacted] : compromise. Minimal detail

Likewise security - put the fact of it, rather than details.

People are always able to be MP.

ICO - suitably anonymised by post four digits of post code

ICO will respond to the consultation.
