

Why is an oak tree important for high biodiversity (lots of different plants and animals)?

