BURNLEY FOOTBALL CLUB

Burnley FC is a football club from the town of Burnley in East Lancashire. Founded in 1882, it was one of the first to turn professional in 1883, the same year the club moved to its home ground, Turf Moor, making it the second-longest continuously used stadium in English professional football.

The club enjoys a rich history, crowned champions of England on two occasions in 1920/21 and 1959/60, lifting the FA Cup in 1914- and as two-time winners of the FA Charity Shield in 1960 and 1973. Nicknamed the 'Clarets,' the club has spent 60 seasons in total in the highest division of English football and currently compete in the EFL Sky Bet Championship under Head Coach Scott Parker.
