Let's dig in!

Holiday Marketing Playbook

Customers love causes for celebration — and we're here to help you deliver.

Throughout this toolkit, we'll dive deep into hundreds of monthly marketing opportunities. But first, here are some general tips, promotion ideas, and social copy templates your business can plug and play to promote any food holiday.

Food Holiday Tips

Determine your business goal.

Are you trying expand your customer base? Increase ticket sizes? Drive loyalty? Focus on one or a few key goals and choose a marketing strategy that aligns with them. For example, if you already have a community of dependable regulars, consider a holiday referral program that encourages existing diners to invite friends.

Share photos of menu items.

Customers eat with their eyes first — 25% of Gen Z consumers use a restaurant's social media pages when choosing a new place to try for delivery or takeout.¹ Because of this, serving up appetizing visual content can help secure sales.

Host a giveaway.

Known for boosting social media engagement, contests are a creative, cost-effective way to tap into customers' competitive nature and inspire interaction with your brand. Who wouldn't want to win a coupon for your business — or a free dessert with their next delivery order?

Offer holiday-inspired discounts.

Free snickerdoodles could be a sweet treat on National Cookie Day — and National Best Friend Day is the perfect opportunity for a BOGO promo.

Support your local community.

Give customers a way to make a positive impact and help their community by offering a discount to anyone who donates to an organization of your choice, or by donating the profits from sales of a certain menu item.

Occasions Marketing with DoorDash

There are some holidays or events where order volume on DoorDash increases. These can either be events where customers naturally order more (e.g., Game Day) or special occasions where we can encourage people to order more (e.g., National Pizza Day.)

As a merchant on DoorDash, you might see an increase in orders on these days thanks to increased order volume across the platform. It's also a good time to have an ad or promotion running, since those can further boost your visibility or give customers an incentive to choose your store.

What is DoorDash doing?

One of our primary goals is to help small businesses grow. There are three ways we try to do that during occasions.

1 Increased marketing

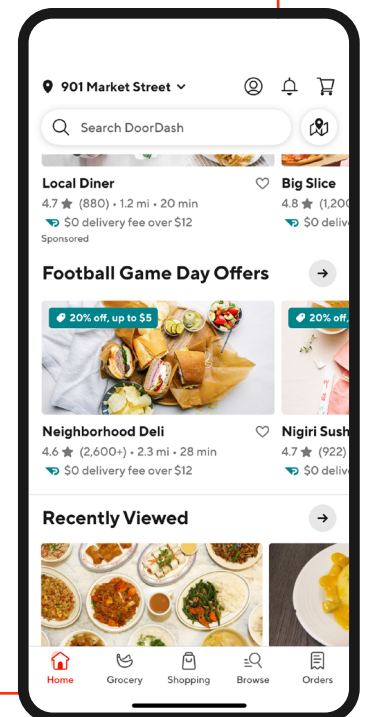

During key occasions, we will run online marketing campaigns to encourage more customers to use the DoorDash app.

2 Homepage store features

We'll often feature an occasion-themed carousel, banner, or badge on the app homepage that highlights local businesses. This gives those merchants extra visibility to customers looking to place orders for the occasion.

3 Boosted promotions

Sometimes, we'll add more value to an active promotion for customers, boosting the customer discount amount — and we'll cover the difference. In other words, your promotion will be more valuable to you and your customers, at no cost to you.

Other than the standard marketing fees associated with running a promotion, there is no cost to participate in occasions.

What can I do to prepare?

Whether or not you're running a promotion, here are a few tips to manage restaurant operations on the busiest holidays for food delivery:

- ☐ Add photos and descriptions to your menu. Menus with photos and item descriptions get more sales than menus without.
- ☐ Make sure you're staffed up to handle an increase in volume.
- ☐ Optimize your kitchen layout by creating a space or lane specifically for takeout orders.
- ☐ Keep your menu up to date by deactivating out-of-stock items.
- ☐ Set accurate prep times based on current capacity and order size so your team has more prep time and customers and Dashers have a more accurate idea of when an order will be ready.
- ☐ If you're using a tablet and want to automatically add additional prep time to every order, set your kitchen status as "Busy".

If you're already running a promotion: Make sure your promotion will be active during the holiday or special event. Some occasions may just be a day, but many will include a few days.

If you're not running a promotion and want to: Set up a promotion in the Merchant Portal. If we're doing a special carousel or boosted promotion, we'll send you an email to let you know.

DoorDash Occasions Calendar

Here are the occasions DoorDash is focused on driving an increase in consumer volume on the app. The occasions where DoorDash will feature local stores on the homepage or boost promotions are in bold. Remember to keep an eye on your inbox; DoorDash will email you ahead of occasions so you can prepare.

Restaurant Week Playbook

Before we wrap up this guide, we wanted to touch on another special occasion that's dear to restaurant operators: Restaurant Week!

No matter what time of year it happens in your city, here are a few tips for making the most of your local restaurant week:

- ✓ Promote well in advance. Start promoting at least a month ahead of time. This way, diners can make plans to dine with you (instead of discovering they'd missed out a day too late).
- ✓ Give customers a sneak peek. Share your Restaurant Week menu across social platforms, featuring different food photos one by one — and encouraging followers to tag friends who would enjoy each dish!
- ✓ Offer appetizing referral incentives. For example, a diner who refers three parties to book a table at your restaurant could earn a free entrée of their choice.
- ✓ Cook up a brand new dish. Create a buzzworthy menu item that customers can't ignore — like a limited edition ice cream flavor or an eye-catching cocktail creation.
- ✓ Create a unique hashtag. Then use it throughout the entire week to increase discoverability!

Give your holiday marketing a boost with DoorDash

DoorDash partners get access to marketing tools that help them get noticed by new customers and drive more orders. Eligible merchants can try Sponsored Listings or Promotions with $100 credit per store.*

*This is a limited-time offer for select merchants in the US valid until terminated by DoorDash; DoorDash may end this offer at any time. Eligible merchants will see the offer available in the Marketing tab in DoorDash's Merchant Portal. Stores that have previously participated in Promotions are not eligible for the credit. After the $100 credit is consumed per store, merchants will be automatically charged for the remainder of the campaigns per store. No cash value. Non-transferable.

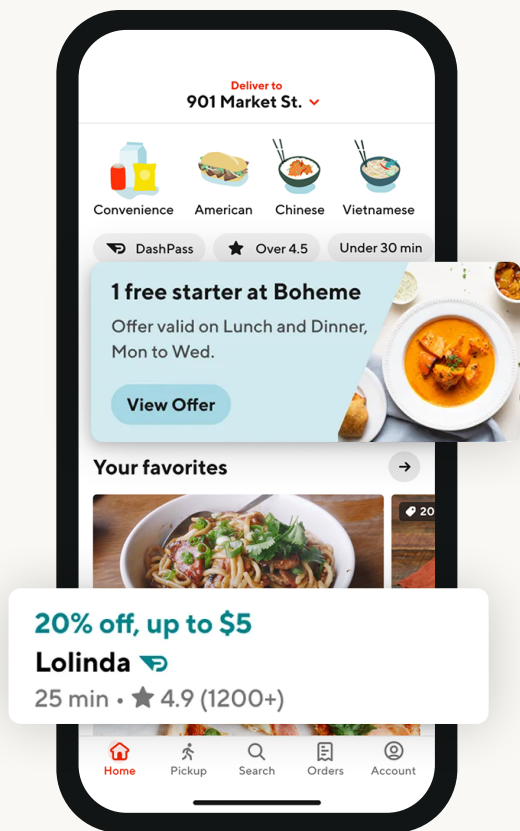

Sponsored Listings

Sponsored Listings are targeted ads that are featured in highly visible places on the DoorDash app, like the homepage and search results. Unlike ads on other platforms, Sponsored Listings are pay-per-order, not per click — so you'll only pay for the ad when an order is placed through it.
