

Rebellion Presents Overdose is a live act that focuses on the rougher side of Rebellion. No boundaries & no limits mean it will always remain interesting.

This is truly a trip into another dimension in every way possible. Nothing will be as it seems with real plot twists through the set both musically and visually.

The audience will feel like a stage that they have been looking at all night has completely been transformed into another world.

After the premiere at Supremacy 2019, the crowd & online response has been incredible with most people describing it as the most insane live act in the genre. The set comes with exclusive music, exclusive visuals designed & maintained by LastBlast and a crazy outfit to complete the transformation.

The message is 'You can't cure us, we're part of the problem'.
