

WARFACE BIO

Leading listeners on a journey of complete sonic savagery, Hardstyle phenomenon Warface holds without a doubt, one of the most impressive success stories in the scene. From lurking in the underground to claiming the world's mainstages, the End of Line Recordings head honcho has sparked a musical insurgence that's captured the attention of the entire movement.

Unlocking the vault to triumph, Warface strikes gold with each creation that exits the studio. A few examples of his musical dominance are his stream of artist albums Art of War, The 9 Circles, Vengeance, Synchronised with D-Sturb, Forgotten Future and of course the highly succesfull Rest In Pieces album and live concept. On top of that, his iconic singles such as I Need You, Radioactive, Come With Me, Sky Fall, No Paradise and of course his hit '2 Be High' with techno powerhouse Nico Moreno, continue to shape the movement.

Known for his unique artistic vision, Warface showcased his Live For This concept during three sold-out editions in Amsterdam's iconic AFAS Live venue. Internationally, he has torn through multi-genre stages across Europe, North and South America, Asia and Australia—highlighting the unstoppable global influence of his sound. His international dominance has also been recognized in the DJ Mag Top 100 (#65 in 2017 and #75 in 2019).

Warface's rise hasn't slowed down—bridging boundaries between hardstyle and techno-inspired savagery. Adding to his already diverse arsenal of performances, Warface unveiled his unique Electric Dreams live show. A groundbreaking concept that pushes his music and artistry into new dimensions.
