

in Fayetteville

From 1965-1969 I was in the US Army!!
I spend 3 years in Germany and seen all the 911 Porsches. That kinda got me charged up for a car when I got home. I came back from Germany to finish my 4 year tour in Ft Bragg, North Carolina. I had one of my Buddies take me car shopping every weekend. One Sat I spotted this 1968 Z28 Camaro in this Car lot, Dealership was M & O Chevrolet. It had 450 miles on the speed ometer. I had bin driven ~~by~~ by a Salesman.
I ended up buying it with new Car Warranty. for 2750.00. I was in Ft Bragg, for 6 Month. till I got out of the service. While I was there I would race it at local Dragstrips in the area. after I got home I had a lot of fun with that car and my share of speeding tickets. My Wife and I owned and operated an Auction and moving Co! for 35 years. I would buy Candy to sell at my Auction from a Salesman Louie Sater. I made a mistake by parking it, My Z28 Camaro in front of my Office when Louie came to see us. He came in the office and wanted to know who owns that Camaro out front. I told him it was mine and was not for sale! Louie would not give up, till he owned it. He did give me a fair Price!
He went home got a Car trailer and hauled it away.
The worst mistake I ever made. Now Louie can tell you the rest of the story!!!
