

Visiting the Crocker Art Museum

I am going to visit the Crocker Art Museum with my class.

We will travel to the museum on a bus or ride
in cars.

When we arrive, our teacher or adult will have stickers for us to wear, so we can go inside the museum.

The museum is a big place, with lots of things to see. Sometimes there are many people there.

Sometimes there are only a few.

There are special museum manners I can remember when I visit.

These manners help to keep me safe, other people safe, and the art safe.

Museum Manners

NO!
I don't run.

YES!
I use WALKING FEET.

The most important rule is that I DO NOT TOUCH THE ART!

I look at the art with my eyes.

This is so that I keep the art safe. If I touch the art, it will not stay nice.

This is a good way to look at the art. I can sit or stand by the art, but I don't sit or stand too close.

Even though I can't touch the art, there will be something special for me to touch. It will help me remember not to touch the art.

Someone will be waiting inside the museum to meet me and my class. They will be our guide, and they will be wearing a green apron. They are going to take us around the museum to see the art.

My class and I will listen to our guide
and follow our guide
through the Museum.
We will stay together.

We might use the stairs.

We might use the elevators.

Our guide will take us to see some exciting things, and we will talk about them. I can listen when others talk. I will have a turn to talk, too.

If I have a hard time with Museum manners, my teacher or a grown up will help me to remember them.

When my class is all done with our tour, we might take a break.

I can tell my teacher if I need to go the bathroom or have a snack.

If there is still time, my class might walk around the museum some more, play outside, or eat lunch.

When it is time to leave the museum, my teacher or adult will let me know.

The Crocker Art Museum is a fun place where I can see many things. I can remember my museum manners and have a great trip!

When I leave I will get a special pass so my family can come back to the museum later on.

The people at the Crocker Art Museum are always happy to see me visit!
