3X3 BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

Dear Basketball Friends,

On behalf of FIBA, it is a great pleasure to welcome you to the 3x3 Olympic Basketball Tournaments of the Paris 2024 Olympic Games.

In 3x3's journey from the streets to the Olympic stage, Paris 2024 represents the latest exciting step in our sport's rapid global rise. Paris 2024 is an opportunity for the world's best players to showcase their talents in front of sold-out crowds and hundreds of millions of Olympic fans around the world.

We are delighted to be in the Parc Urbain La Concorde, in the heart of the city and in full alignment with our urban heritage. The park will welcome fans for non-stop sports entertainment and the unforgettable festival atmosphere that 3x3 is known for.

More than 37,000 people are expected to attend the urban park daily, with existing and new fans set to be engrossed in the fast-paced action of 3x3. Combined with DJ sets, sports demonstrations, and artistic performances, Parc Urbain will be one of the hottest tickets in town.

It will be a special moment that will further strengthen 3x3 basketball's record-breaking engagement levels. From 344 million annual views and 2.6 million followers in Tokyo to more than 3.4 billion annual views and 7.6 million followers in 2024, 3x3 has become one of the biggest Olympic sports discipline.

Following the incredible success of the Olympic Qualifying Tournaments in Hong Kong (China), Utsunomiya, Japan and Debrecen, Hungary, we know that Paris 2024 will be a historic moment for 3x3 basketball. The competition will feature eight teams per gender, underlining FIBA 3x3's commitment to gender parity. The referees will also be split equally between men and women.

Thank you once again to the International Olympic Committee and the Organising Committee of Paris 2024 for their great cooperation for what is set to be a landmark year in the history of 3x3 basketball.

Finally, we wish all players and National Federations a very successful Olympic Games.

Sheikh Saud Ali Al Thani
FIBA President

Andreas Zagklis
FIBA Secretary General

WHAT IS 3X3?

HISTORY AND

2010 FIRST EVENT

3x3 had been played in the streets for as long as basketball existed. Under the leadership of the late Patrick Baumann, FIBA's former Secretary General, the organization unified the rules of 3x3 and had a very successful first official event at the 2010 Youth Olympic Games.

2011 DIGITAL COMMUNITY

Besides the elite international competitions, the concept behind 3x3 was to develop a mass participation game, including the entire grassroots community. FIBA created a free web app named "3x3 Event Maker" to help organizers create and manage their events, and a free digital platform named play.fiba3x3.basketball where players could find and register to events, which brought them FIBA 3x3 ranking points.

2011 WORLD CUP

FIBA organized the first FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup in Rimini, Italy in 2011. The first FIBA 3x3 World Cup will come the following year in Athens, Greece.

2012 WORLD TOUR

FIBA went on to launch a professional circuit so that fans can watch 3x3 the entire year and players can win prize money (2.5 million USD in 2019 / 5.2 million USD in 2023) and specialize in the discipline.

2017 OLYMPIC INCLUSION

After just 7 years of growing the game and building a huge community on social media, the International Olympic Committee announced that 3x3 would be added to the Olympic program as a 2nd discipline of basketball on a permanent basis, starting from the Tokyo Games.

2019 WOMEN'S SERIES

The best women in the game get a chance to play 3x3 at the highest level on a regular basis and earn prize money in the women's professional circuit.

2021 TOKYO OLYMPICS

Just 11 years after the first official game, 3x3 makes its debut at the Olympics in the Aomi Urban Park, the exact same location where FIBA played its first 3x3 event in Japan in 2013. The tournament is played with a gender-equal delegation of players, referees and entertainers. Latvia (men) and USA (women) were the Tokyo 2020 Olympic gold medalists.

2024 PARIS OLYMPICS

3x3 basketball's second appearance at the Olympics. Held in the heart of Paris, in Parc Urbain La Concorde welcoming fans for non-stop sports entertainment and the unforgettable festival atmosphere that 3x3 is known for.

VISION

3x3 (pronounced "three-ex-three" in English) is considered the number one urban team game. From the first official event at the 2010 Youth Olympics Games, FIBA has had an ambitious vision for the game:

UNIVERSAL

3x3 is simple and flexible enough to be played anywhere by anybody. It offers a chance for new countries to find success in basketball: Netherlands will compete in basketball at the Olympics for the second time ever in Paris! Latvia won their first Olympic gold medal ever in Tokyo. All you need is a hoop, a half-court and six players. Events can be staged outdoor and indoor in iconic locations to bring basketball directly to the people.

ENTERTAINING

The rules are very simple and designed to make it a fast, spectacular and exciting game. The non-stop music brings an authentic urban culture atmosphere, which attracts a new young audience to the games.

PROFESSIONAL

3x3 is an opportunity for new players, organizers and countries to go from the streets to the World Stage. The stars of the game play in a professional tour and some of the most prestigious multi-sports events. On June 9, 2017, 3x3 was added to the Olympic Program, starting from the Tokyo 2020 Games.

RULES

Starting from 2010, FIBA came up with a unified set of rules for 3x3, that had several ambitions:

- Make it simple and accessible so that 3x3 could be understood and played anywhere
- Create the fastest team sport or discipline on Earth (we call it "the 10-minute sprint") to catch the attention and be "snackable", tailor-made for social media and the way sports fans consume sports nowadays.
- Maximize the drama and the cultural side of basketball to break the barrier between entertainment and sport

SIMPLE

1 hoop,
1 half court
2 teams of 3 + 1 sub

FAST

10-minute game
12-second shot-clock
No break after scoring
No half-time
No quarters

ENTERTAINING

Game over at 21 pts
First to 2 pts wins OT
Non-stop music

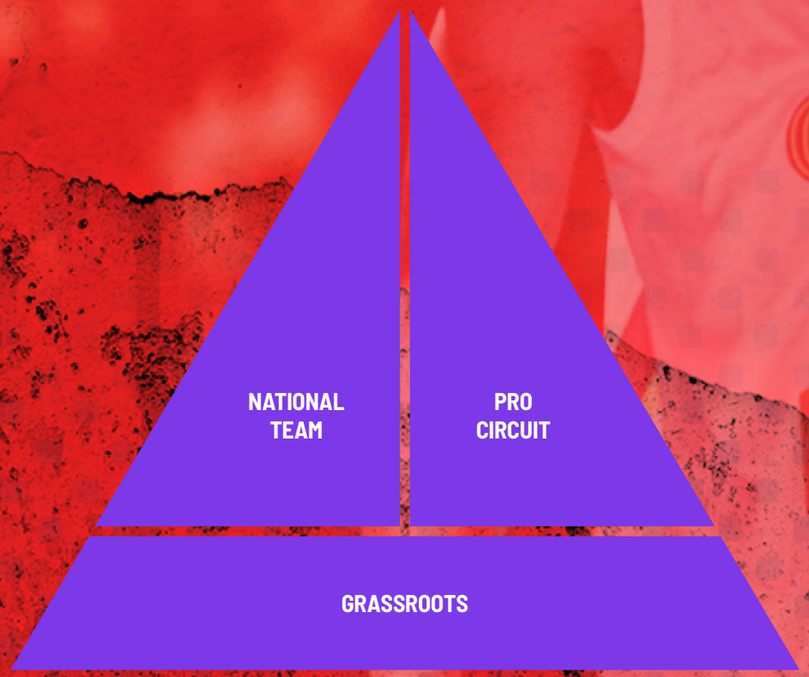

Rules like the "continuation rule" (no breaks after scoring)have created a completely different game where the frenetic succession of possessions require a different effort and physical preparation. It also generated a game for quick thinkers where players must always anticipate the next possession. The maturity and IQ of the athletes is even more important considering that there are no coaches on the court.

Rule	3x3	Basketball
Hoop	1	2
Court	Half	Full
Players	3-a-side	5-a-side
Ball	Size: 6 / Weight: 7	Size: 7 / Weight: 7
Playing time	10'	4 x 10'
Game over	21 PTS	n/a
Shot-clock	12"	24"
Field goals	1 or 2 pts	2 or 3 pts
After scoring	no break	inbound

COMPETITION NETWORK

There are 3 types of competition in 3x3, organized in a pyramidal system:

- National team competitions played by national federations.
- The professional circuit played by teams representing cities for the men and representing countries or commercial entities for the women.
- Grassroots amateur events.

All those competitions are captured by play.fiba3x3.basketball (FIBA's worldwide digital platform for 3x3 events) and are taken into account for ranking calculation purposes. Competitions are either standalone tournaments or based on a series of tournaments.

NATIONAL TEAM COMPETITIONS

Competitions are played yearly in the following age categories:

- World Cup – Open and U23
- Zone Cup (Continental Cup) – Open
- Youth Nations League - U21 and U23

World Cups have a dual qualification: via federation ranking and Zone Cups (of the previous year).

Nations League and Zone Cups are open to all federations.

- Nations League are played in conferences, with the top teams of each conference and the League Final Standings qualifying to the U23 World Cup.
- Zone Cups may have qualifiers depending on the number of registered federations.

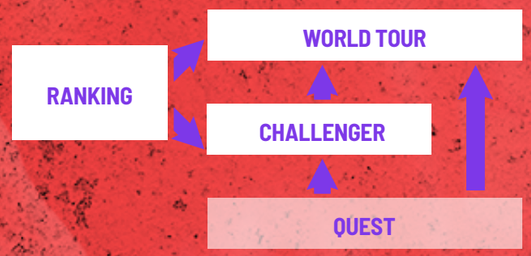

PRO CIRCUIT (MEN)

Simplifying, the professional competition for men is composed of the World Tour and the Challengers. World Tour is made of a certain number of World Tour and one World Tour Final at the season end, to which teams qualify based on the World Tour season standings. Challengers qualify to the World Tour. Both, World Tour and Challengers are FIBA 3x3 Official Competitions and are fed by local qualifiers and the team ranking.

The qualifiers to the pro circuit are called Quests. They are of 3 kinds:

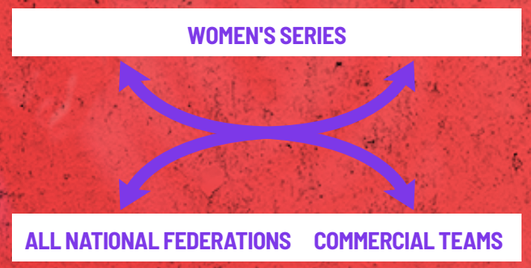

- Lite Quest to Challenger: qualifies one team to a Challenger
- Quest to World Tour: qualifies (in principle) one team to the qualifying draw of a World Tour
- Super Quest: off-season event that qualifies two teams to the main draw of a World Tour.

PRO CIRCUIT (WOMEN)

Simplifying, the professional competition for women is composed of a certain number of Women's Series stops and a Women's Series Final at the season end, to which teams qualify based on the season standings after the last stop.

Each Federation is allowed to register 1 Federation team, while patrone (such as brand, cities) are allowed to register a co called "commercial team" to the Women's Series. Teams are allocated to each tournament based on prior number of allocations and federation ranking.

RANKINGS AND DIGITAL

How many other team sports or disciplines have an individual world ranking? From the 64 Olympians to the entire community of 3x3 players, all people registered with play. fiba3x3.basketball have their own Ranking, which evolves on a daily basis according to results at FIBA-endorsed events. It allows players to compare their skills with friends, local players and pros from all over the globe.

The FIBA 3x3 Individual World Ranking is calculated based on the 9 best results in FIBA-endorsed events played in the last 12 months. The number of points earned by a player at an event depends on:

1. The event's importance in the competition network (ranking color).
2. The team's results
3. The player's individual scoring and key statistical performance (when recorded)

There are in fact 3 types of ranking, which are all calculated daily:

- Individual
- Team
- Federation

The Team Ranking is used at the start of the season to determine which teams preferentially qualify directly to the professional circuit (FIBA 3x3 World Tour and 3x3 Challengers).

This ranking is calculated by adding up the FIBA 3x3 Individual World Ranking points of the 3 highest ranked players from each team.

The position in the 3x3 Federation Ranking is driven by the performance of the top players of a certain nationality together with the number of players and their playing frequency. The more events are organized the more likely players will accumulate points and increase the standings of their national federation in the ranking.

It is the main criterion used to identify the teams qualified to the FIBA 3x3 World Cup and the Olympic Games (open and youth categories).

There are three qualification provisions when selecting the roster for 3x3 at the Olympics.

- Minimum of two players ranked in the top-10 of their country according to the FIBA 3x3 Individual Rankings.
- Two players ranked in the Top-10 of their country, or have participated in minimum one (1) FIBA 3x3 Official Competition between 1 January 2023 and 24 June 2024
- Players must hold legal nationality of the represented country and issued before 1st of January 2022.

DIGITAL

We could have written the entire Media Guide on the digital side of 3x3. As mentioned in the History section, besides the elite international competitions, the concept behind 3x3 was to develop a mass participation game, including the entire grassroots community.

In fact, and though it must be said that national basketball federations play a major role in the development of the game, 3x3 is open to everyone and public and private promoters are equally welcome to organize FIBA 3x3-endorsed events and join the competition network

Therefore FIBA has built its own digital ecosystem and made available to all 3x3 event organizers free tools to create, manage and promote their events. It helps run 3x3 events around the world and generates the data required by play.fiba3x3.basketball, including player rankings, performances, game histories and a worldwide database of events.

Whether you want to set up a small 3x3 event at your local school or host a World Tour or a World Cup event, the same web app called 3x3 Event Maker is used. It is currently available in 18 languages (ongoing translations for some languages).

From paid registrations to scheduling and results entries, managing events with Event Maker is easy, fast and fun. You can set up multiple events, create tours, manage registered teams and enter results as they happen.

All events created with 3x3 Event Maker are published to the global platform for all 3x3 basketball - play.fiba3x3.basketball website

The site is focused on getting people to play more 3x3 by offering them a wide range of services.

Players can:

- Check their individualized ranking and analyze their performance
- Access an archive of all games in a cloud repository Manage their profile
- Connect with other players
- Find and register to competitions

At this moment FIBA 3x3 has over 8M followers, and in 2023 3x3 generated over 1B worldwide views across all their content. Follow the best of 3x3 basketball on @FIBA3x3 on all social media channels.

3X3 AND PARITY

3x3 plays a key role in the promotion of women in basketball, one of the 3 strategic priorities of FIBA for the 2019-2023 cycle.

This is why FIBA will bring a gender-equal crew to the Paris Olympics:

- 32 men and 32 women's athletes
- 7 men and 7 women's ITOs
- 1 man and 1 woman's MC

This strong statement is not something new in 3x3.

Every single national team competition has the exact same amount of men and women's teams and the two categories played on the same court on the same dates. What happens at the Olympics happens in every single national team competition: we alternate between men and women's games. Women are given the same platform, the same court, the same fans, the same coverage as the men.

Gender parity amongst Statisticians and Table officials (NTOs)

The women and men's 3x3 Olympic gold-medal games will be played back-to-back. Hence, we will even have a photo of the medalists of both categories together on the Olympic court included in the protocol after the games on August 5.

Also, it is common for female referees to officiate men's games in 3x3.

OLYMPIC TOURNAMENT

VENUE

The 3x3 event of the Paris 2024 Olympics will take place on the iconic Place de la Concorde, the largest public square in Paris, located nearby Grand Palais, Champs Elysées and the Louvre.

Paris 2024 waned to enable urban sports to become established in their natural environment, away from stadiums and at the heart of the city. A temporary transformation of La Concorde into an open arena, sharing the resources with 4 sports:

- 3x3 basketball
- BMX freestyle
- Breaking
- Skateboarding

Once the 3x3 Basketball competition concludes, the venue will serve its purpose for the breaking competition.

Place de la Concorde will be the beating heart of urban sports and urban cultures.

From DJ sets to sports demonstrations, artistic performances, warm-ups by athletes before events and training sessions, fans will have the opportunity to enjoy a wide selection of activities around the Games, urban cultures and sports, to relax, have fun and enjoy the celebratory atmosphere and the spirit of the Games.

Paris 2024 hopes to welcome up to 37'000 people daily for competitions as well as entertainment, all taking place at the Concorde Urban Park.

The 3x3 venue capacity is 4'700 seats.

HOW THE TEAMS QUALIFIED

There were 3 ways to qualify for the Paris Olympics:

- Via the FIBA 3x3 Federation Ranking (3 spots per gender)
- Via an Olympic Qualifying Tournament (3 spots per gender)
- Via two Universality Olympic Qualifying Tournaments (1 spot per gender for each event)

The event starts with all 8 teams (per gender) in one single pool and every team plays each other over the course of first 4 days. On day five, a play -in will be introduced for teams that finish 3rd to 6th.

The top two teams advance directly to Semi Finals, while teams placing 7th and 8th will be eliminated. The remaining four teams compete in the play-in, with the Semi Finals and medal games all taking place on the last day of competition, on 5 August.

These tie breakers will be applied in a case of tie in the pools and decide who advances out of the pool/to the elimination round. There are three tie breakers:

1. Most wins (or win ratio in case of unequal number of games in inter-pool comparison);
2. Head-to-head confrontation (only taking win/loss into account and applies within a pool only);
3. Most points scored in average.
If teams are still tied after those three steps, the one with the highest seeding wins the tie-breaker.
