Mary Berry's Red Velvet
Cake recipe

THE BIG 40TH BIRTHDAY BAKE!

Every birthday party needs a cake, right?! Showstopping and stunning or wonky, weird and wonderful, your beautiful bakes can raise some serious dough.

So this year, come together with friends, neighbours and family to pull on your aprons and go BIGGER, BETTER and BERRY-IER than ever before!

This Red Nose Day, we're calling on the nation to celebrate Comic Relief's 40th birthday by hosting a big birthday bake sale.

Kickstart your fundraiser by whipping up Mary Berry's brilliant red (obviously!) velvet cake – you'll find the recipe in this guide.

Not keen on red velvet? Think you can go better than Berry?! Cake is good however it comes. You could serve up some fab fortieth fairy cakes, an 80's inspired masterpiece or a multi-layered, sprinkle-covered, perfectly spherical baked Nose.

Ready, set... bake!

RAISE SOME DOUGH!

- * Host a Red Nose Day birthday bake sale. No time to bake? Just buy something...shhh... we won't tell!
- * Collect donations and challenge friends, team mates, neighbours or your family to a bake off
- * Raffle off your beautiful bakes

MARY BERRY'S BRILLIANT RED (OBVIOUSLY!) VELVET (AKE!)

FUNDRAISER SPOTLIGHT

For Red Nose Day 2024 best friends Jess and Aliyah made some seriously impressive cakes and sold them at their very own bake sale, raising over £70 for Comic Relief! Thank you for being baking superstars!

TAKE ON THE CHALLENGE: JOIN TEAM BILLY!

Over the years, Comic Relief has tasked some of our brave showbiz chums to take on some pretty serious challenges all in the name of going big, giving big and feeling good.

This year, former racing driver, broadcaster and all-round fundraising champion Billy Monger has taken on the 2024 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship in Kona, Hawaii all in aid of Comic Relief.

Not only did he tackle a 2.4-mile open water swim, 112-mile cycle AND a 26.2-mile run in intense humidity, he also set his sights on the IRONMAN World Championship Record for a double amputee!

Now it's your turn... be inspired by Billy and set your own epic challenge!

HOW DID BILLY DO?

Keep an eye on BBC1 and iPlayer in the run up to Red Nose Day to find out.

TOP TIP

Use your JustGiving page and QR code stickers in this pack to collect donations for your challenge.

GET SPONSORED TO:

- * Challenge yourself to a 'try-athlon' and 'try' three completely new physical challenges - rock climbing, aqua aerobics and ultimate frisbee, anyone?!
- * Set a Billy-themed distance and take it on in-person or virtually as a group - can you complete the gruelling cycle, swim or run collectively as a team?
- * Go BIG and take on an individual epic endurance challenge to really get those donations rolling in.
- * If running's not your thing and the thought of spandex fills you with dread, it's Red Nose Day and ANYTHING GOES! Hop, scoot, moonwalk your way round. The sillier the better. Because when we all go big on the silly, you give big, do good and make memories.

MORE FABULOUS FUNDRAISING IDEAS

RETRO FANCY DRESS

Celebrate 40 years of doing good by dressing up in your best nostalgic outfits in return for a donation. Think leg warmers from the 80s, grunge from the 90s, or double denim from the 00s. Pick your own retro style, the wilder the better! Or keep it simple, and dress red from head to toe... just don't forget your Red Nose from comicrelief.com/shop

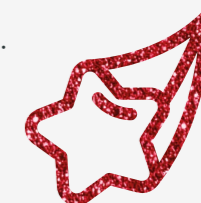

GET QUIZZICAL!

Think you nose it all? Put your brain cells to the test with Alexander Armstrong's Big Red Nose Day quiz at comicrelief.com/quiz. Host a pay-to-play lunchtime brain-teaser, or make an evening of it, selling tickets for an online or in-person event. Friendly (or fierce) competition is strongly encouraged.

DO YOUR OWN THING

Got a better idea? Go for it! The funnier the better - because when it comes to Red Nose Day, no idea is too weird or wonderful. So, get creative to bring in the cash, to help put food on plates and roofs over heads, keep little ones safe and help support families affected by conflict.

THIS YEAR'S NOSES ARE THE 'BEST OF THE BEST'!

To celebrate 40 years of Comic Relief, we're bringing back a favourite Red Nose from each decade. Plus a celebratory Cupcake Nose, exclusive to our Collector Pack. Well, it wouldn't be a birthday without cake. Why not try to get your hands on all five? And if you're lucky, you could even get our Rare Ruby Nose - a sparkling addition to our classic line-up.

FABULOUS FUNDRAISERS

Together, we've been going big, giving big and feeling good with Comic Relief for 40 years. And this Red Nose Day, we've got lots to celebrate.

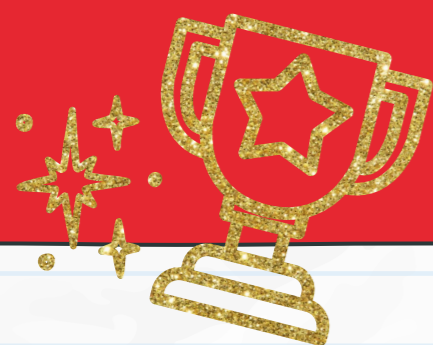

You, the Great British public, have raised a whopping £1.6billion to support over 100 million people across the world and here in the UK. With your support, we're able to keep mobile food clubs on the road, stock multibanks with anything from beds to breakfast, help communities to prevent HIV/AIDS, get children living tough lives onto sports fields for kickabouts that will kickstart their confidence – and give refugees and people living on the streets a warm welcome in temporary homes and new communities.

Thank you. You're the best.

FUNDRAISER SPOTLIGHT

Last year's Lenny Award winner was the amazing Rae, who defied all the odds after a cycling accident left him paralysed from the neck down. Rae learned how to walk again and, over the years, has been using the power of movement to raise funds for Comic Relief.

For Red Nose Day 2024 he went above and beyond, organising a 12-hour spin-a-thon in his local leisure centre, raising an amazing £4,084! Rae was presented his trophy live during the Red Nose Day show by Sir Lenny Henry himself!

Thank you for being amazing Rae!

HOW YOUR MONEY MAKES A DIFFERENCE

The money you raise means that, together, we can keep supporting projects in the UK and across the world that help children to be happier, families stronger, women safer, communities prouder and millions of lives fairer.

Faz has lived in the UK for more than 45 years, but when he was uprooted from his life and job, things started to unravel. At his lowest, he was referred to The Booth Centre in Manchester, which Comic Relief helped fund, where staff helped him find temporary accommodation and showed him that, “if you fall down, they’re there to pick you up.”

Faz is now volunteering there, because he wants to give back – to help people from all backgrounds who’ve ended up among the growing numbers of people in the UK sleeping on the streets, or as part of the hidden homeless population. Each morning, he and the rest of the dedicated team open the doors and welcome people in for food, warmth, advice and the practical support they need to turn their own lives around.

The Booth Centre is a day centre that offers advice, activities and support to homeless people in Greater Manchester. Comic Relief funding has helped the The Booth Centre to support people to find and keep secure homes.

Amazing fundraisers, just like you, could support people like Faz, and projects like The Booth Centre, to make a huge difference to people in the UK impacted by homelessness.

So together let’s go big, give big, and feel good this Red Nose Day, because the money we raise will support projects that can help make people’s lives better.

“IT’S AN OPEN-DOOR POLICY. YOU’RE FACED WITH A SMILE AND WELCOME, WHICH BRINGS DOWN EVERY BARRIER IN THE BOOK.”

OUR WONDERFUL PARTNERS

Sainsbury's

Sainsbury's and Comic Relief are working together to help tackle food poverty. Through our Nourish the Nation programme, we are working together to fund a range of incredible projects, initiatives, and interventions across the UK and in selected countries internationally to ensure communities have improved access to balanced, nutritional, and sustainable food sources now and in the future.

British Airways

Thanks to the generosity of British Airways colleagues and customers, Flying Start has raised over £30m since 2010. From customers donating spare change on flights, to thousands of Flying Start Champions doing their own fundraising challenges, we couldn't be prouder of our partnership. This year will be no different, with fundraising Champions going above and beyond to help give children and young people in the UK and internationally a Flying Start in life.

Holland & Barrett

We're excited to team up once again with Holland & Barrett for Red Nose Day 2025! This year, we're putting the "fun" in fundraising as we work together to make health and wellness accessible to everyone, everywhere. Whether you're shopping online or in-store, you'll have the chance to donate and make a difference. Plus, keep an eye out for Holland & Barrett's specially selected products that donate to Comic Relief with every purchase. Let's laugh, give, and create a world where wellness becomes a way of life for all.

Maltesers

Maltesers has been raising money for Comic Relief since 2011, and we're immensely proud of partnership. For the last four years our joint focus has been on helping women build resilience by laughing together through the tough stuff. Our partnership in 2025 will continue that work, with the aim of working towards a future where women no longer face injustice.

Babybel

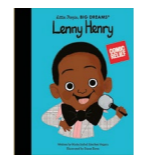

Our wonderfully cheesy partners Babybel are back for another Red Nose Day and will be donating £150,000 to Comic Relief. Purchase a promotional pack and visit www.babybel.co.uk/comic-relief to join the goodness.

The LEGO Group

We're so excited to be teaming up with the LEGO Group's Build the Change programme for the fourth year running. This collaboration is all about children getting creative and learning through play. Comic Relief turns 40 in 2025, so this year we're asking kids to think about what schools could look like in 40 years, and how the world might have changed for the better by 2064!

The Quarto Group

MARY BERRY'S RED VELVET CAKE

Get red-dy for Red Nose Day with an impressive but easy red velvet cake from the baking queen Dame Mary Berry. It's so simple, even a complete beginner can knock it together.

Preparation time: 30 mins to 1 hour

Cooking time: 25 to 30 mins

Serves: 8

Suitable for vegetarians

INGREDIENTS

For the red velvet cake

- Butter, for greasing
- 250g/9oz plain flour
- 1 tbsp cocoa powder
- 2 tsp baking powder
- 1 tsp bicarbonate of soda
- 250g/9oz light muscovado sugar
- 200ml/½ pint buttermilk
- 150ml/¼ pint sunflower oil
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 tbsp red food colouring gel or about ¼ tsp food colouring paste
- 2 large free-range eggs
- 8 white chocolate truffle balls, to decorate

For the buttercream icing

- 250g/9oz butter, softened
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 300g/10½oz icing sugar
- 250g/9oz full-fat mascarpone

For cake labels, bunting and more go to comicrelief.com/fundraising

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 180C/160C Fan/Gas 4. Grease two 20cm/8in sandwich tins and line the bases with baking paper.
2. Measure the flour, cocoa powder, baking powder, bicarbonate of soda and sugar into a bowl and mix well.
3. Mix the buttermilk, oil, vanilla, food colouring and 100ml/3½fl oz water in a jug. Add the eggs and whisk until smooth. Pour the wet ingredients into the dry ingredients and whisk until combined. The mixture should be bright red; it will get a little darker as it cooks. If it's not as vivid as you'd like, add a touch more colouring.
4. Divide the mixture evenly between the two prepared tins and level the surfaces. Bake for about 25–30 minutes, or until well risen and shrinking away from the sides of the tins. Cool in the tins for 10 minutes, then turn out, peel off the paper and leave to cool completely on a wire rack.
5. To make the buttercream icing, place the soft butter and vanilla extract in a large bowl and sift in half the icing sugar. Mix with an electric whisk until smooth. Sift in the remaining icing sugar and mix again. Add the mascarpone to the bowl and gently stir with a spatula (don't beat with a whisk as it may split). Put a fluted nozzle in a piping bag and spoon about 150g/5½oz of the buttercream into the bag.
6. To assemble the cake, sit one of the sponges on a cake plate and spread one-third of the buttercream over the cake, then sit the other cake on top. Ice the cake by first spreading a thin layer of icing – a crumb coat – over the whole cake before chilling for 30 minutes.
7. Pile the remaining icing from the bowl on top and spread it with a palette knife over the top and around the edges to completely cover the cake. Make sure that the icing is smooth around the edges before starting to create lines up the sides. Make wide lines up the sides and swirl the top.
8. Use the reserved buttercream in the piping bag to pipe a rope design around the edge of the top of the cake. To do this, start at the edge of the cake and pipe continuous swirls of icing overlapping each swirl as you pipe around the edge of the cake. Decorate with the chocolate truffles to finish.

TOP TIPS

- Use a professional food colouring paste, if you can, as a natural liquid colouring won't work and may even turn the sponge green.
- The sponges can be made up to 3 days ahead and will stay moist if wrapped in cling film or eco wrap. You can freeze the cakes un-iced.
- To make your Chocolate Truffle 'Noses' Red, coat the chocolate balls in red edible glitter or luster.
